Introduction

St John's College has in place a closed circuit television system to provide a safe and secure environment for students, staff and visitors, and to protect College property.

This document sets out the accepted use and management of the CCTV system and images to ensure the College complies with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and associated legislation ('data privacy legislation'), the Human Rights Act 1998 (HRA), the Surveillance Camera Code of Practice issued under the Protection of Freedoms Act (POFA Code) and other legislation.

Purpose of CCTV

The College has installed a CCTV system to deter crime, assist in prevention and detection of crime, assist with the identification, apprehension and prosecution of offenders and to maintain the security of College premises, property and equipment.

The system will be provided and operated in a way that is consistent with an individual's right to privacy.

The system will not be used to provide images to the world-wide web for entertainment purposes, record sound or disclose to third parties (unless disclosed to the police or Oxford University Proctors to identify a person).

Owner

The CCTV surveillance system is owned by St John's College, Oxford.

Authority for use of CCTV and responsibility for CCTV use rests with the Governing Body of the College.

The Master of Works is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the system at the College Sports Ground and ensuring compliance with this policy.

Overview of system

The CCTV system runs 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The CCTV system is managed locally across the College by staff from contractors acting on behalf of the College and by in-house staff.

The CCTV system comprises fixed position cameras; pan tilt and zoom cameras; monitors; multiplexers; digital recorders and public information signs.

CCTV cameras are located at strategic points in College and at the Sports Ground. All cameras at the Sports Ground will be prevented from focusing on the frontages or rear areas of private residential accommodation, or images pixelated where appropriate.

CCTV signs are prominently placed in College and at the Sports Ground to inform staff, students, visitors and members of the public that a CCTV installation is in use.

Although every effort has been made to ensure maximum effectiveness of the CCTV system it is not possible to guarantee that the system will detect every incident taking place within the area of coverage.

Data protection

For the purpose of the GDPR and data privacy legislation, St John's College is a data controller and data processor.

CCTV digital images, if they show a recognisable person, are personal data and are covered by the GDPR and data privacy legislation. This policy is associated with the College's Data Protection Policy and Information Security Policy, the provisions of which should be adhered to at all times.
