Gift Aid

If you are a UK taxpayer and choose to give using Gift Aid we can reclaim 25p for every £1 that you give, at no extra cost to you. giftaid it

☐ I can confirm that I am a UK taxpayer and I understand that if I pay less Income and/or Capital Gains Tax than the amount of Gift Aid on all my donations (to all the charities and Community Amateur Sports Clubs to which I donate) in that tax year (6 April – 5 April) it is my responsibility to pay any difference. Please treat all donations to St John's College, Oxford that I have made in the past four years and all future donations from the date of this declaration as Gift Aid donations unless I notify you otherwise.

Information to consider when making your gift – Tax-efficient giving

EUROPE

If you are a European resident, you may be able to maximise your gift through Transnational Giving Europe (TGE).

This is a collaborative giving scheme offered by a partnership of European foundations. It enables donors (both corporations and individuals) resident in one of the participating countries to offer financial support to non-profit organisations in other member countries. Beneficiaries benefit directly from the tax advantages provided for in the legislation of their country of residence.

Country-specific contact details for the scheme are available on the TGE website. The scheme is currently operational for donations from the following European countries:

- | | | | | |
|------------|-----------|---------------|---------------|------------------|
| • Belgium | • Germany | • Italy | • Romania | • United Kingdom |
| • Bulgaria | • Hungary | • Netherlands | • Slovakia | |
| • France | • Ireland | • Poland | • Switzerland | |

Additional information about European cross-border giving can be obtained from Giving In Europe.

The German Friends of Oxford University

Residents of Germany can also make tax-efficient donations via the German Friends of Oxford University without incurring any fees.

The German Friends of Oxford University is a registered charity run by Dr Jan Willisch. It is authorised to issue donation receipts to German donors, entitling them to offset charitable gifts from their taxable income in Germany. Legacies are treated in the same way as lifetime donations for the purposes of inheritance and gift tax in Germany, so you can also talk to Dr Willisch about leaving a gift in your will.

How we use your data

The personal data that you have provided on this form will be used by St John's College to process your donation in accordance with our contractual and legal obligations, and to meet our legitimate interest of alumni and supporter engagement, fundraising and stewardship. We will use your data to: record information about your giving, including any gift agreements, memberships, or correspondence relevant to your donation; communicate with you about the impact of your donation and other appeals that may be of interest to you; and record information about your willingness and capacity to support our charitable objectives.

To meet our legitimate interests above we also store and share your data. This may include updating your preferences regarding the external reporting of your donation, your contact details and mailing preferences. For full details of how we collect and process your personal data, see our full Privacy Notice.

Who has access to your data?

The data that you have provided will be shared across the collegiate University of Oxford, including its clubs and societies, in accordance with the University's policies and procedures via our shared relationship management system. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data at any time. The University and participating colleges are both "data controllers", meaning you can contact either the University or your college if you have questions about your data.

We may also need to share it with third parties supporting the processing of your transaction. We will only do this in appropriate circumstances, for specified purposes, by secure means, using the minimum amount necessary, and with the relevant data sharing agreements in place. We do not and will not sell your data.

How long we keep your data

We consider our relationship with our alumni, donors and supporters to be lifelong and we will retain most of your data indefinitely unless you request otherwise.

Your rights

You have the right to opt out of direct marketing at any time. You also have the rights to request access to and correction or erasure of your data; to request transfer of your data to another party; or to object to the processing of your data or request that such processing is restricted.

The full details of our privacy information, including your rights, are set out in our Privacy Notice at www.alumniweb.ox.ac.uk/St_Johns/privacy-notice or you can request a hard copy from our Database team. If you would like to exercise your rights, opt out, or are dissatisfied with the way we have used your information, please contact us at alumni@sjc.ox.ac.uk or telephone +44 (0)1865 610 866. The same email address may be used to contact the University's Data Protection Officer. If you remain dissatisfied, you may lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at: <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
