Information to consider when making your gift

USA

Tax-deductible gifts

Tax-deductible contributions may be made to Americans for Oxford, Inc. This organization can receive contributions and make grants available to St John's College. Americans for Oxford, Inc. disburses funds quarterly to the College. Under U.S. Internal Revenue Service guidelines, the estimated value of any benefits received in acknowledgement of contributions to this mailing is not substantial; therefore the full amount of the gift is a deductible contribution.

The administration of gifts

Americans for Oxford, Inc. has been determined by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service to qualify under Sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as a tax-exempt public charity.

To maintain the deductible status of gifts, U.S. law requires that the Board of Directors retains control and discretion concerning grants to Oxford. Although gifts to this organization must be unrestricted, the Board of Directors will certainly consider specific preferences of donors.

Corporate matching gifts

Americans for Oxford, Inc. can accept all tax-deductible contributions from corporate matching gift programs.

Gifts of securities and property

For information on gifts of appreciated securities, property, lead trusts or charitable remainder trusts, please direct enquiries to the following telephone number: Americans for Oxford, Inc. (212) 377 4900.

How we use your data

The personal data that you have provided on this form will be used by St John's College to process your donation in accordance with our contractual and legal obligations, and to meet our legitimate interest of alumni and supporter engagement, fundraising and stewardship. We will use your data to: record information about your giving, including any gift agreements, memberships, or correspondence relevant to your donation; communicate with you about the impact of your donation and other appeals that may be of interest to you; and record information about your willingness and capacity to support our charitable objectives.

To meet our legitimate interests above we also store and share your data. This may include updating your preferences regarding the external reporting of your donation, your contact details and mailing preferences. For full details of how we collect and process your personal data, see our full Privacy Notice.

Who has access to your data?

The data that you have provided will be shared across the collegiate University of Oxford, including its clubs and societies, in accordance with the University's policies and procedures via our shared relationship management system. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data at any time. The University and participating colleges are both "data controllers", meaning you can contact either the University or your college if you have questions about your data.

We may also need to share it with third parties supporting the processing of your transaction. We will only do this in appropriate circumstances, for specified purposes, by secure means, using the minimum amount necessary, and with the relevant data sharing agreements in place. We do not and will not sell your data.

How long we keep your data

We consider our relationship with our alumni, donors and supporters to be lifelong and we will retain most of your data indefinitely unless you request otherwise.

Your rights

You have the right to opt out of direct marketing at any time. You also have the rights to request access to and correction or erasure of your data; to request transfer of your data to another party; or to object to the processing of your data or request that such processing is restricted.

The full details of our privacy information, including your rights, are set out in our Privacy Notice at www.alumniweb.ox.ac.uk/St\_Johns/privacy-notice or you can request a hard copy from our Database team. If you would like to exercise your rights, opt out, or are dissatisfied with the way we have used your information, please contact us at alumni@sjc.ox.ac.uk or telephone +44 (0)1865 610 866. The same email address may be used to contact the University's Data Protection Officer. If you remain dissatisfied, you may lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at: <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
