

St John's College

INSPIRE PRIMARY

Are your primary school pupils looking forward to visiting one of the University of Oxford's gardens, libraries, or museums? Then why not and visit St John's College!

The St John's Inspire Primary initiative brings the College's innovative approach to access and outreach to younger years. If you are planning on visiting one of the University of Oxford's gardens, libraries, or museums, then we would be delighted to welcome your pupils to St John's too.

The College is centrally located and within five to ten minutes walking distance of the Ashmolean Museum, the Oxford University Museum of Natural History, the Pitt Rivers Museum, the History of Science Museum, and the Bodleian Library's Radcliffe Camera and Weston Library.

What do we offer?

- Tours of St John's College – come and see our glorious gardens, our enchanting chapel and our amazing architecture
- Interactive learning activities – encourage your pupils to stretch themselves with our exciting resources
- Catering options or space for pupils to eat their own packed lunches

Is my primary school eligible?

Any state primary school is eligible

How much does it cost?

There is no cost!

How do I book?

For more information or to book your Inspire Primary visit, email us at access@sjc.ox.ac.uk

St John's College
Oxford

@sjc_access

St John's inspire programme