Year Twelve Study Day

Modern Languages Wednesday 10th May 2023

St John's College, Oxford is pleased to welcome applications for the Year 12 Modern Languages Study Day

The Modern Languages Study Day is open to all Year 12 students currently attending a non-selective state-school in the UK.

Are you currently studying a Modern Language, English or History at A-Level (or equivalent) and interested in:

- Studying Modern Languages at a top university?
- Meeting Oxford tutors and students, to learn about the Modern Languages courses offered at Oxford?
- Experiencing academic taster sessions in French, Spanish, German and/or beginner's German from Oxford tutors?

To sign up:

- Complete the application form on our website between 20th March and 8am Monday 17th April 2023 or CLICK HERE to sign up!

*Please note, our study days are often oversubscribed and selection is based on academic merit

- All events and resources are free to qualifying pupils. Travel awards and Digital Assistance Awards are also available for eligible participants.
- All places are reserved for candidates in Year 12 at non-selective state schools.

What does the day involve?

- Academic taster sessions led by Oxford Modern Languages tutors
- An introductory lecture on applying to, and studying at, Oxford University
- An interview session with a practice interview demonstration
- A Q&A session with current Modern Languages students and tutors.
 - A tour of St John's College
- All attendees will receive a certificate of participation
