

St John's College
Oxford

Year Twelve Study Day

Geography Wednesday 1st March 2023

St John's College, Oxford is pleased to welcome applications for the Year 12 Geography Study Day

The Geography Study Day is open to all Year 12 students currently attending a non-selective state-school in the UK.

Are you currently studying an essay based subject at A-Level (or equivalent) and interested in

- Studying Geography at a top university?
- Meeting Oxford tutors and students, to learn about the Geography courses offered at Oxford?
- Experiencing academic taster sessions in Geography given by Oxford tutors?

To sign up:

- Complete the application form on our website between the 20th January and 8am 6th February 2023 or CLICK HERE to sign up!

*Please note, our study days are often oversubscribed and selection is based on academic merit

- All events and resources are free to qualifying pupils. Travel awards and Digital Assistance Awards are also available for eligible participants.
- All places are reserved for candidates in Year 12 at non-selective state schools.

What does the day involve?

- Academic taster sessions led by Oxford Geography tutors
- An introductory lecture on applying to, and studying at, Oxford University
- A Q&A session with current Geography students and tutors.
- A tour of St John's College
- All attendees will receive a certificate of participation

If you have any questions or would like more information, please do get in touch!

 @sjc_access

 @sjc.oxford

 @sjc_access

 Access@sjc.ox.ac.uk

 01865 277 359

for further information on eligibility criteria and the Subject Exploration Day application form, please see the college's website*