FINANCE

Students are asked to confirm that they are in a position to meet their financial obligations throughout their course. They should also inform the College of any relevant change of circumstances that occurs before they come into residence.

INCREASES OF CHARGES

The College is entirely dependent upon its investment and fee income and charges made to junior members. It must be expected, therefore, that such charges will be subject to revision. The College reserves the right to increase charges in the course of the academic year.

UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE FEES

University fees are collected through the College, and unless recoverable from a public authority or the Student Loans Company, are charged on battels (bill from the College). Fees for 2017/2018 are given below.

University Tuition Fee

These are to be found on the University Website which gives details of the fees payable by individual course – www.ox.ac.uk/students and then look under the fees and funding section.

College Consolidated Fee

Undergraduate - payable by overseas, Islands and other non-“publicly funded” students	£7,350
Graduate (during period in which fees are payable to the University)	£3,021

Graduate or Undergraduate level classification is by nature of the course to be undertaken. A graduate who is taking an undergraduate course pays the undergraduate fee, as do overseas students in Year 1 of Graduate Entry Medicine.

For graduates, the University Tuition fee is payable whether the graduate is in residence or not, until it has been paid (i) for the statutory period of three, six, or twelve terms, depending on the degree or diploma for which the student is reading, or (ii) until he or she qualifies for the degree or diploma, whichever is the earlier. If the graduate remains in Oxford after the statutory period (see (i) above) the College charges a continuation charge of £113.75 per term and the University charges a continuation charge of £455 per term.
