

Subject Exploration Day in History 2018/19

St John's College
Oxford

Are you currently studying History at A-Level (or equivalent) and interested in:

- pursuing an undergraduate degree in History, either at Oxford or another university?
- experiencing a day of academic taster sessions (lectures and seminars) at the University of Oxford?
 - receiving information and advice on applying to Oxford from current staff?
 - having the opportunity to talk to current History students about their experiences?
 - seeing how a History course might be structured and taught at university?
 - meeting like-minded people from across the country?

St John's will be running a study day in History for all Year 12 students on Saturday 11th May 2019.

Subject Exploration Day in History 2018/19

St John's College
Oxford

What will the day include?

- An introductory talk on the History course from a current tutor at St John's College, Oxford
- A series of taster seminars with members of academic staff and postgraduate students
 - A Q+A panel discussion with current students and staff
 - A tour of St John's College

The event is free of charge to attend. Lunch and refreshments will be provided. If you are in receipt of free school meals or in the care of a local authority, St John's can cover travel expenses to and from Oxford.

To apply, please complete an application form and send to access@sjc.ox.ac.uk by Monday 22nd April 2019.

