The screenshot shows the 'Our College values' page on the St John's College website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a search icon, dropdown menus for 'For: Current students', 'For: Alumni', and 'For: Schools', and a main navigation menu with 'Study', 'College life', and 'Discover'. The page title 'Our College values' is prominently displayed in a red header. Below the header, a breadcrumb trail reads 'Discover / About the College / Our College values'. The main content area features a paragraph: 'We have established a set of values for everyone working and studying at St John's College.' To the left is a photo of Professor Dame Sue Black, President, with the text 'OUR VALUES' and a sub-headline: 'We have established a set of values for everyone working and studying at St John's College. They show the expectations we have of ourselves and of each other; they guide our day-to-day decisions and how we behave.' Below this is a list of four values, each in a red box with a plus sign: 'Pursuing excellence', 'Acting with integrity', 'Caring for our community', and 'Embracing equality, diversity and inclusion'. On the right side, there is a 'In Discover' sidebar with a list of links: 'About the College', 'History', 'The Chapel and Choir', 'College buildings', 'The gardens', 'Legal', 'St John's and the Colonial Past', 'In Memoriam', 'Video: A Typical Day at St John's', 'Our College values' (highlighted), 'News', 'Events', 'People', 'Equality, Diversity and Inclusion', 'Environmental Sustainability', 'Library & Study Centre', 'Conferences', 'Research', 'Vacancies', '40 Years of Women', and 'Visit us'.

St John's provides financial support for graduates through grants, scholarships and prizes.

Information on sources of financial support available to graduate students can be found on the University Fees and Funding page.

Grants, prizes and scholarships for current graduate students

North Senior & Beeston Scholarships

The College proposes to elect four North Senior Scholars from among its current graduate students. The intention is to award one scholarship per division, subject to suitable applications being received.

Applicants must be currently registered for a research degree at St John's College. The Scholarships are open to candidates in all subjects. A successful candidate in the field of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies would be awarded the title Beeston Scholar.

The basis for the award will be excellence in research.

Scholars will have the right to dine at High Table once a week (subject to availability) in Full Term, and will receive an emolument of £1,000 per year.

The Scholarships are tenable during the period of full fee-paying study up to a maximum of two years.

Applications for 2024 are now available and will close on Friday 26 July - please complete an application form.
