To the extent that absences are due to allegations of criminal behaviour or criminal convictions.

Where allegations of, or convictions for, criminal offences are held as part of leaver records, this data will usually be either public information, held for the purpose of obtaining legal advice in connection with legal proceedings, be necessary for the exercise of a function conferred on the College by an enactment or the rule of law, or held in the public interest for the purpose of protecting the public against unfitness, improper conduct or similar.

Where no such grounds for processing this data apply, it will be held and processing only based on your consent.

Most commonly such data would be processed in connection with the detection or prevention of an unlawful act.

Where it processes special category data for these purposes, the College is exercising functions conferred under legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely the requirement for the College to comply with its statutory and legal obligations.

To the extent that criminal conviction data is relevant and processed by use in relation to the joint equity scheme, we would process it for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.
