PRESIDENT’S PREFACE

A warm welcome to St John's College. Ours is a wonderfully open, inclusive and diverse College and I very much look forward to meeting you and getting to know you better. You will make lasting relationships here and the friendship and support you experience will remain with you for the rest of your life.

The purpose of this Guide is to tell you a little about the College and introduce how it works, so please take the time to read it carefully. For the next three or four years you will be part of a diverse international community of undergraduate and graduate students, professors, research fellows, lecturers and tutors. Like you, they all engage in a range of scholarly activities and are privileged to be supported by a highly experienced and committed body of College staff.

I hope you will make use not only of our recently completed Study Centre at the heart of College but also take the opportunity to participate in the cultural and sports activities that we provide as part of a broad collegiate University. St John’s is committed to ensuring the holistic welfare of its staff and students and I urge you to make time to find a healthy work/life balance that suits you.

You are entering an exciting and challenging chapter in your life with an array of new opportunities and experiences. You will develop new interests that will stretch you beyond your past experience and help you to learn about yourself as well as your chosen academic subject. Studying for a degree at Oxford is unquestionably demanding, but you have clearly shown both the talent and the desire to meet this challenge. I hope that you will enjoy your time here at St. John's and I extend a very warm welcome to you.

Professor Dame Sue Black, Baroness Black of Strome
President
ARRIVING AT ST JOHN’S
Welcome to St John’s! In 2022 we are looking forward to welcoming our new undergraduate students to College on Sunday 2nd October. This is the beginning of 0th week, the week before “Full Term” begins when you can expect to have a busy schedule of induction events in the College and in your Faculty or Department. There will also be a number of social events to welcome you, organized by College and also by the JCR (Junior Common Room), to provide opportunities to meet fellow students. A timetable for College events during 0th week will be made available on the College website before you arrive. Please see page 7 for details of important dates for the academic year.

You may be permitted to arrive earlier than Sunday 2nd October if you are an international student or if you are due to attend a pre-sessional course. If so, please contact the Accommodation Office to arrange this (accommodation.office@sjc.ox.ac.uk). If you do need to arrive in Oxford early, please note that you may not be able to access all libraries and facilities straight away.

You will find the University website a useful way to access University news, resources and services at Oxford. The site includes a ‘Before you Arrive’ section which you may also find helpful during your first few weeks in Oxford.

Car parking in College
Due to very restricted car parking facilities within the College, the College is unable to offer students or their visitors car parking facilities. We recommend that you do not bring a car to Oxford.

THE STUDENT HANDBOOK
The purpose of this handbook is to introduce you to the College and help you understand how it functions. It provides information on academic matters, some welfare issues (although you should also have a look at the College’s separate Welfare Guide), financial information, and College and University codes of practice. In addition, the College’s regulations governing discipline are explained. Please do keep it to hand as a useful source of information and guidance on a range of matters which affect your status as a student.

The handbook should be read in conjunction with the University Student Handbook, which provides general information and guidance you may need to help you to make the most of the opportunities on offer at the University of Oxford, and the College’s Domestic Arrangements.
Detailed information about degree course requirements and examinations is provided in the University’s Examination Regulations, and you will also receive a handbook or similar document from your faculty or department giving further information about your chosen course.

This College handbook is intended for students admitted to undergraduate courses, including those who are completing the fourth year of an undergraduate course (for example the MChem, MMath, MEngSci and other similar courses). Students studying for a post-graduate qualification should refer to the College’s Graduate Student Handbook.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
The College Student Handbook contains a great deal of useful information, but to get you started, here are the answers to some of the most frequently asked questions we receive from current students.

How do I get a certificate/letter proving I am a student here?
You can print your own enrolment certificate through the University’s Student Self Service. You will need your Single Sign On (SSO) details (e.g. sjoh1234 and password) to log in. The Academic Office can sign and stamp the certificate for you. Enrolment certificates may be used to open a bank account.

My University card has been lost/damaged/stolen; what should I do?
University Cards (Bod Cards) are issued by the University Card Office via the Academic Office.

Broken cards are replaced free of charge; please complete this form to request a replacement. For lost cards, there is a £15 replacement charge levied by the Card Office. The fee is paid online via the University Store and a replacement card will be issued by the University’s Card Office after payment is received. Further information is available on the University Card Office web page.

How do I find out information about College accommodation?
Please refer to the College’s Domestic Arrangements on the College website. Queries about accommodation should be directed to the Accommodation Office.

How do I pay my battels (charges owed for accommodation, meals, etc.)?
See the Money Matters section (starting on page 38) of this Handbook.

What funding does the College have available for current students?
Please refer to the Money Matters section of the Handbook.
How do I get permission for extra time in exams/use of a computer/other alternative exam arrangements?
Please contact Mrs Elaine Eastgate, the College’s Disability Coordinator, in the Academic Office for information about applying for alternative arrangements. Do be aware that there are deadlines for applying for alternative arrangements so you should ask for advice as soon as possible after your arrival in College if you didn't declare a disability on your application form.

How do I find out about support mechanisms in College/around the University?
There is a separate College Welfare Guide, produced by the Fellow for Welfare, available on the College Website which contains information about the support offered to you in College and around the University, as well as offering links to other resources that students have found helpful.

What is the Student website?
The Student website provides information on the University website about news, resources and services for students at Oxford.

What is Student Self Service?
Student Self Service is your way of accessing the University’s student record system, using your Single Sign-On details. You will need to use it to register at the start of each academic year, to view your exam results and to ensure the University has the correct contact details for you.

The University’s “Any Questions?” provides information for current students as well as general information about the University.

GLOSSARY OF OXFORD TERMS
A useful guide to terminology used across the University is available on the University website.
INTRODUCTION

The College consists of its buildings and its present and past membership. The President, who is the head of the College, and about sixty Fellows who are members of Governing Body, many of whom are Tutors who undertake research in and teach their respective subjects. A number of the Fellows are also Professors in the University. There are also about thirty College Lecturers who engage in research, and give lectures, classes and tuition.

The student body consists of approximately 400 undergraduates working for an honours degree of the University, about 200 graduate students working for a higher degree, diploma or certificate of the University, and a small number of visiting students.

There are approximately 200 members of staff who are employed in the administration, maintenance and service of the College.

The main purpose of the College is to further intellectual study within the framework of the academic disciplines of the University. In addition, the College provides its members with living accommodation and meals, common rooms, library resources, gardens, its Chapel and recreational facilities.

THE GOVERNING BODY AND COLLEGE OFFICERS

The College is governed by its Statutes and by its Governing Body which is drawn from Tutors, Research Fellows, Professorial Fellows and College Officers.

The Governing Body has the duty of regulating the academic studies, social provision, and discipline of all members of the College. Various provisions are made for senior and junior members of the College to discuss together matters affecting the well-being of the College and its members. Junior members have representation on certain College committees and are represented at the Governing Body when it receives reports of the committee discussions in which they participated.

The day-to-day affairs of the College are administered by College Officers, some of whom are members of the Academic staff of the College acting in a full-time or part-time capacity, supported by professional staff. The Senior Tutor is responsible, in collaboration with your subject tutors, for the organization of tutorial teaching in College and the academic supervision of undergraduate students. They can help with academic work problems and are responsible for the maintenance of academic standards and expectations.
COLLEGE OFFICERS

The Senior Tutor, Dr Matthew Nicholls, is responsible for the oversight of all general academic provision, maintenance of standards, and academic policy development.

The Senior Dean, Professor Theresa Burt de Perera, is responsible for discipline, and for the College Hardship Fund.

The Fellow for Welfare, Rev’d Dr Elizabeth Macfarlane, is responsible for welfare provision and supports the whole community of St John’s, students and staff alike, as part of the welfare team.

COLLEGE STAFF

The following members of College staff are of particular importance to junior members:

The Academic Administrator, Eileen Marston and her colleagues in the Academic Office are responsible for the administration of academic matters relating to undergraduate and graduate students. The Academic Office is on the first floor of the Bursary, North Quad, Staircase 7. (academic.office@sjc.ox.ac.uk)

The College Disability Co-ordinator, Elaine Eastgate, can advise on support available for students with disabilities, including how to make an application for alternative exam arrangements

The Finance Bursar and Finance Office staff are responsible for collection of fees, charges and other College bills. The Finance Office is on the second floor of the Bursary, North Quad, Staircase 7 and can be contacted by email in the first instance. (battels@sjc.ox.ac.uk)

The Domestic Bursar and Accommodation Office staff are responsible for the administration of accommodation provided for junior members and ancillary services, including furnishings, equipment and cleaning. The Accommodation and Housekeeping Managers Offices are on the ground floor of the Bursary, North Quad, Staircase 7. (accommodation.office@sjc.ox.ac.uk)

The Master of Works and Works Department staff are responsible for repairs and maintenance of property and buildings. The Works Department is in North Quad. If you have a query about routine maintenance in your room (replacement of light bulbs, minor repairs etc.) please email the Stores Department. (stores.management@sjc.ox.ac.uk)
The Lodge Porters are responsible for security, issuing keys and administration of post. The main Lodge is at the entrance to the College in St Giles’. There is also a Lodge at the entrance to the Kendrew Quad. (Tel. 01865 277300)

The IT Officers are responsible for administration of the College data network. The IT Office is located in the Rural Economy Building. Information about IT in College is provided later in the handbook.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR
The academic year runs from 1st October to 30th September each year and is divided into three terms, Michaelmas (autumn), Hilary (spring) and Trinity (summer). “Full Term” lasts for eight weeks, this being the period during which teaching happens. Each Full Term begins on the Sunday of 1st Week and ends on the Saturday of 8th Week.

Some subjects, including Chemistry and Biochemistry, require undergraduates to be in residence for extended terms in some years of their degree. Information about these extended dates can be found on the University website.

The week before the start of Full Term is known as 0th Week (and, inevitably, the week after the end of Full Term is known as 9th Week). 0th Week is important: you are expected to be in residence in Oxford for the whole of the eight weeks of Full Term and from the Thursday of 0th week at the beginning of each term. The phrase "in residence" includes residence either in College accommodation or in accommodation you may have arranged for yourself elsewhere in Oxford. Vacation periods between terms are referred to as the Christmas vacation, Easter vacation and Long vacation (summer).

The terms in the 2022-23 academic year are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Michaelmas Term</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sunday 0th Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday 0th Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sunday 1st Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday 8th Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hilary Term</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday 0th Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sunday 1st Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday 8th Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trinity Term</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday 0th Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sunday 1st Week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday 8th Week</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Sometimes you may have to be in Oxford for periods longer than those stipulated above. For example, you may find yourself sitting exams during the 9th or 10th weeks of term, or you may want to remain in College for other academic reasons. If you live in College you will need to apply for Vacation Residence for permission to stay in College accommodation during these periods.

Your Tutor, the Academic Administrator and the Accommodation Office (if you are resident in College) should be informed if your return to College at the beginning of term is delayed for any reason.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the College’s requirements, the University also makes residence requirements of students, stating the number of terms and/or the period within each term you must be resident in or around Oxford in order to qualify for a particular degree. These requirements vary, depending on the qualification for which any particular student is working but it is worth noting that the general University requirement is for 42 nights "in residence" during each "Statutory"
Term (a Statutory Term is a little longer than a Full Term); and that residence must normally be within six miles of Carfax (i.e., central Oxford).

COUNCIL TAX
Full-time students living in rented property are exempt from paying council tax. You can obtain a copy of your Enrolment Certificate confirming your student status (which can be used to prove your exemption from council tax) from your student record page using the Student Gateway. You will need to visit the Academic Office to have your certificate stamped with the College stamp.

BEING AWAY FROM COLLEGE
Students are normally expected to be in residence during the week in Full Term. However, as long as you are satisfying the University’s residency requirements, and provided there is no adverse effect on your academic work, you may occasionally absent yourself from College overnight. As a matter of courtesy you should let your Tutors know if you have to be away for more than one night.

CONTACT
Maintaining contact with the College is very important at all times. Contact might be necessary to inform student members of tutorial arrangements or news within College. There might also be cases where the College needs to contact a student member about an urgent request to get in touch with their families.

Student members are therefore required to collect mail regularly from pigeonholes in the Lodge (ideally at least once every 24 hours). Those living out must ensure that this is done, and failure to do so will not be regarded as a sufficient reason for missing an appointment with a College Officer (e.g. Senior Tutor or Senior Dean) or with their tutors.

The College needs to be in a position to access up-to-date record of students’ contact details, including mobile phone numbers; this is particularly important in the event of an emergency. You must therefore maintain and update your student self-service record, including your home address and your emergency contact details. You are also advised to provide the Lodge with a temporary forwarding address for vacations. This information is kept confidential: it is not disclosed to anyone other than authorized University personnel without your express permission.

If there are any special circumstances which may affect your well-being in an emergency, for example, if you have any allergies health conditions which College staff should be aware of, please ensure that this information is recorded in the College Lodge. Again, this information is treated as confidential.

COMMUNICATION DURING TERM-TIME
There are three main ways by which information is passed to students: Email, student pigeon holes and Lodge noticeboards. Since communications from Tutors and administrative staff are usually sent to students by email, College Regulations require you to check your email regularly (ideally on a daily basis). College will use only one type of email address: firstname.lastname@sjc.ox.ac.uk. If you wish to use a different address you MUST arrange a divert from your college address. College Regulations also require you to check your pigeon hole regularly.

Communications from Tutors and College staff sent to undergraduates during College term and delivered to College pigeonholes or sent to electronic mail addresses in the domain @sjc.ox.ac.uk will be deemed to have been received after 24 hours, unless the junior member is out of residence.

The Academic Office is open all year (except for a period during the Christmas vacation) for enquiries in person, by email or telephone from 8.30 am – 1.00 pm and 2.00 – 5.00 pm, Monday-Friday. You may also contact the office via the Academic Office pigeon hole at the Lodge. Academic and administrative staff may be contacted via email, their pigeon holes at the Lodge, or by telephone.

SOCIAL INVITATIONS
From time to time you will receive, from the President and other College Officers, invitations to social events. Please reply to these promptly (whether or not you wish to accept) so that those organizing the event know how many people to cater for.

ACADEMIC WORK IN ST JOHN’S
During the three or four years of your degree programme, St John’s will do all it can to support and encourage you in your academic learning. In return, you are expected at all times to work hard and to the best of your ability. You will have to pass University examinations, during or at the end of your first year of study for most students (these are called either 'Mods' or 'Prelims') in order to begin the two or three-year course of study that will lead to your final examinations in your chosen 'Final Honour School', and to your graduation with a Degree with Honours.
The short Oxford terms do not mean that you do not need to put in so much effort. Quite the reverse. The eight-week term is intensively packed with the range of tuition that Oxford offers you: lectures, classes, laboratories (if you are doing a science subject), and, not least, Tutorials. You will also need to exploit all the time available to you during the long vacations: these are not just meant to be holidays, or a chance to earn money, but form a vital part of your study time while you are at Oxford.

COLLEGE TEACHING
Undergraduate teaching at Oxford is a combination of teaching provided by the University (lectures, practical work and some other classes) and by the colleges (typically Tutorials, classes and seminars). This section describes in general terms the College teaching provided by St John's. Some specific points about the conduct of College teaching are presented at the end of this document. Any questions about matters relating to this document should normally be directed to one of the Tutors in your subject.

The responsibility for arranging your teaching and overseeing your academic progress lies with the Tutor(s) in your subject, most of whom are permanent Fellows of the College. Occasionally, the College makes other arrangements to carry out this responsibility, typically by means of a short-term appointment to cover an absence due to a period of research leave or by a joint arrangement with another college. Academic matters are overseen by the Senior Tutor, who is responsible to the Governing Body.

College undergraduate teaching is provided in a number of ways: first, directly by the Tutors in your subject; second, by other senior members of the University, who are normally working within departments or other colleges within the University; third, sometimes by academics from outside Oxford or by graduate students within the University. Whoever teaches you on behalf of the College, the obligations and responsibilities are the same on both sides. From here on the word "Tutor" is used to refer to anyone who carries out teaching for the College. You may expect that the form and amount of teaching suitable for a particular examination paper will be specified at the beginning of your work for that paper. It is usual for the Tutors in your subject to arrange a meeting in 0th Week (or in the 8th Week of the preceding term) to organise the teaching for the coming term. These meetings are essential. If you miss them, you may cause great inconvenience to your fellow students as well as Tutors. If no meeting is held and a plan of work is not settled by some other means, you should attempt to contact one of the Tutors in your subject. If for some reason you are unable to contact your Tutor, you should contact the Academic Administrator. You should also check timetables on-line via your Departmental/Faculty website.
Much College teaching is in the form of Tutorials, which are attended by an individual student, or a pair or small group of students. Tutorials normally require an essay or other piece of written work (such as a set of problems or a translation). The completion of this work is an essential part of the Tutorial and the Tutor may refuse to give the Tutorial if the work is not completed. In some subjects, considerable use is made of classes and seminars, which are sometimes intercollegiate. Any written work set for these is also obligatory.

The normal duration of a Tutorial is one hour, but use will be made of longer or shorter sessions as appropriate. During a Tutorial, the Tutor will try to avoid lengthy interruptions from telephone calls, visitors or other causes. If there is a large loss of time, it would be reasonable for you to request that the Tutorial should be rescheduled.

At the beginning of each term, it is common practice for the College to set written exams called "Collections". These will relate either to an imminent University examination, or to work that you have carried out during preceding terms. You will normally be told the topics for these College tests at the end of the preceding term. Your performance in Collections is one of the ways in which the College assures itself, and you, of your academic progress. The format of these exams is designed to mirror as closely as possible the exam conditions you will experience during your formal university exams.

Each undergraduate student will have a meeting with the President, called a ‘Presidential Collection’, once during each year of their residence in order to discuss their progress. In those terms when you are not scheduled to have a Presidential Collection, you will have an individual meeting with one or more of your Tutors, to discuss your tutorial reports for the term and your overall academic progress.

Further information about both pre- and end of term Collections is provided on pages 14-16. All College teaching should be conducted in accordance with the College’s Policy and Procedure on Harassment. If you feel that a teaching session is being conducted in a way that is not consistent with this procedure, you should raise the matter with the tutor in charge of the teaching session. If you feel that you need advice on how to go about doing this, you should consult a member of the College's Harassment Panel (see the section on harassment and information on College Policies at the back of this handbook). If necessary, you should report the matter to one of the Tutors in your subject or to the Senior Tutor. If a complaint cannot be resolved informally, the College provides for a formal procedure for the hearing of complaints.

If you have any complaints or concerns about academic matters that you do not wish to discuss with a particular Tutor you may approach another Tutor in your subject or the Senior Tutor. You may also consult other College Officers, including the Senior Dean, Fellow for Welfare, Fellow for Women and Fellow for Ethnic Minorities. Members of the JCR Welfare team are also available to help in such cases. If absolutely necessary, you may apply to the Senior Tutor to change your Tutor or your Tutorial partners without explaining your reasons to the Tutor or students concerned. You must be prepared to justify such a request, but you need not fear adverse consequences.

PLAGIARISM
Plagiarism is presenting someone else’s work or ideas as your own, with or without their consent, by incorporating it into your work without full acknowledgement. All published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form, is covered under this definition. Plagiarism may be intentional or reckless, or unintentional. Under the University’s regulations for examinations, intentional or reckless plagiarism is a disciplinary offence.

Plagiarism is a serious offence and must be avoided in all academic work. Cases of suspected plagiarism in assessed work are investigated by the University under the disciplinary regulations concerning conduct in examinations. Intentional or reckless plagiarism may incur severe penalties, including failure of your degree or expulsion from the university. These rules apply equally to any material obtained via the internet; although the University strongly encourages the use of electronic resources by students in their academic work, any attempt to draw on third-party material without proper attribution may well attract severe disciplinary sanctions. Similarly, the College regards instances of plagiarism in regular tutorial and class work as examples of academic misconduct which will be investigated under the College academic disciplinary procedures and may result in the imposition of severe penalties.

Many undergraduate course handbooks contain detailed subject-specific information. You are required to familiarise yourself with, and adhere to, any University guidelines on plagiarism that are relevant to the subject(s) that you are pursuing.

Further information about what constitutes plagiarism and advice on how to avoid it is available on the University website.

ACADEMIC GOOD STANDING: WHAT IS EXPECTED OF YOU?
As you will no doubt remember from your own experience of the admissions process, students are admitted to the College by academic competition. While the College encourages you to take a full part in the College and wider University community, your continued membership of the College is conditional upon your maintaining a satisfactory record of academic work. When you were offered a place at the College, the expectation was that you would be capable of achieving at least a good Second Class Honours degree (a 2.1), or even better. You are expected to produce work of a standard which fits your individual ability and circumstances, which should normally be of 2.1 standard, and never below that of a Third Class Honours degree. At St John’s you are not permitted to read for a Pass School (i.e. for a degree without Honours), and, if your work falls below Third Class level and remains at that low level, you may not be permitted to continue your studies at St John’s (see the section on Academic Discipline on page 16).

You must attend Tutorials, Collections and classes required by your Tutor(s) and hand in any written work at the time and place specified by them. If you cannot avoid asking for a Tutorial to be rescheduled, you should approach the Tutor as soon as possible, preferably in advance. If you are ill, you may be asked to arrange for a note from the College Nurse or from a doctor.
Tutors have many calls on their time and may find it difficult to re-arrange a Tutorial except for genuine reasons. Upon meeting a new Tutor for the first time, it is your responsibility to establish a means of contacting them in case you should be unable to attend a Tutorial. It may be impossible to make any alternative arrangements for a scheduled teaching session, when a larger group of individuals is due to attend. Please note also that it is often not possible to reschedule teaching to take place after the end of 8th Week of each term.

You must satisfy any conditions required by the Examination Decrees and Regulations relating to the particular School for which you are studying, e.g. for practical work or vacation courses and produce assignments (essays, problem sheets etc.) with the regularity required by your Tutor(s), unless you have obtained permission on adequate grounds, preferably in advance, from the Tutor(s) concerned. You must also fulfill the residence requirements of the University outlined for you on page 8.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR PROGRESS: TUTORIALS, TMS & COLLECTIONS
You will find that you will be constantly reviewing your progress in your subject with your Subject Tutors through the work which you do with them in Tutorials. In order to help both you and your Tutors chart your progress through your course more formally on a term by term basis, Tutors submit reports on Tutorials via a system called TMS (Teaching Management System) and the College arranges, as explained below, a system of 'Collections'.

Tutorials
Tutorials are the main interaction you will have with your College Tutors and you should regard them as the main means by which you can understand how you are progressing.
TMS

TMS (Teaching Management System) is the system used by Colleges and Departments to administer tutorial reports in respect of undergraduate tutorial teaching provided by, or on behalf of, colleges. It allows Tutors to write Tutorial reports for undergraduate students online, provides students with easy access to tuition reports and allows tutors and students to view all their own teaching arrangements. When your academic (end-of-term) reports are ready for you to view, you’ll receive a TMS automated email notification telling you how to login and access your dashboard.

Collections

This word denotes two different ways in which your progress can be assessed:

1. Immediately before the beginning of each term you will be required to take internal College exams ('Collections'), unless you have been specially dispensed by your Tutors or the Senior Tutor. These formative assessments, usually set on the work covered during the previous term, and/or on work set for the preceding Vacation, are designed to give undergraduates experience of writing under examination conditions and to help students assess their own progress. They are held on the Friday and Saturday of 0th week each term and take precedence over all other activities. You may also be set Collections at other times apart from the beginning of term: see the section on Academic Discipline below. It is not usual for Collections to be set at the beginning of a term following one in which you have taken major University Exams, for example, a First Public Examination.

2. Once each academic year, during Michaelmas Term, you will be expected to attend an interview with the President and your subject Tutor(s). These interviews are also called 'Collections' (or 'President’s Collections'). The purpose of Presidential Collections is to enable the President to gain and maintain an impression of how tutors and students in each subject are working together. They also provide an unbiased space outside of the tutorial system for students to raise matters of concern to them.

In Hilary and Trinity Term of each year, unless taking University exams, you will have an individual meeting with one or more of your Tutors, to discuss your tutorial reports for the term and your overall academic progress.

You must attend all Collections; you will be excused only in exceptional circumstances. If you really cannot for some good reason attend your Collection at the end of term, you must inform your Subject Tutor at least a day in advance, citing the reason in full.
Both sorts of Collection provide you with the chance to check regularly on your own progress, and to discuss it with your Tutors and with the President. If your work appears to be unsatisfactory and there are no mitigating circumstances, the College’s Academic Discipline Procedure may subsequently be applied.

ACADEMIC FEEDBACK
You will have the chance to comment on the Tutorials and classes you have received both in St John’s and from outside Tutors through feedback sessions organized by JCR Officers during Hilary Term each year in consultation with the Senior Tutor. In addition, you should always feel able to bring to the Senior Tutor’s immediate attention any serious concerns you may have.

Issues emerging from the results of the feedback sessions are reviewed via the College’s Educational Policy Committee, with student representatives present to share in the discussion.

IF YOUR STUDIES ARE NOT GOING SO WELL, WHAT CAN YOU DO?
From time to time students may go through some periods of difficulty with their work. This will be viewed sympathetically by Tutors, provided that you do your best to keep up a satisfactory level of work at all times. The Tutorial system works best when there is a high level of trust between Tutor and student, so do keep closely in touch with your subject Tutors, particularly if you are experiencing some difficulties, academic, medical or personal, which may affect your ability to maintain the pressure or standard of work that your Tutor is requiring. It may well be that you prefer to speak to someone other than your Tutor about such matters, and if your academic performance is involved, you are strongly encouraged to contact the Academic Administrator, who will be able to put you in touch with the appropriate College Officer so that you can be advised of the best course of action. For other points of contact in College for personal problems or difficulties, see the section on “If Things Are Not Going So Well” on pages 32-39.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE
Attendance at Tutorials, Collections and classes required by Tutors is compulsory. This includes practical and other classes organised by the University as a required part of your course. By accepting your offer of a place at St John’s College, you have agreed to comply with all its regulations, as well as those of the University, including the academic requirements outlined here. This means that you must not absent yourself from Tutorials without prior permission, except for sudden illness or other urgent cause, which you must explain to your Tutor preferably in advance, or as soon as possible afterwards.
If you are repeatedly absent from Tutorials or required classes without good cause, then you will be in danger of breaching academic discipline. As a consequence, you may be required to terminate your course and leave the University. You must submit all required work to Tutors at the appropriate time as set by Tutors, except where you have gained permission not to do this on adequate grounds, preferably in advance. If you fail to respond to a series of warnings from your Tutor(s), you will receive a series of more formal warnings from the Senior Tutor, and finally from the President. Continued academic deficiency will be referred to an Academic Disciplinary Committee for action.

You will find outlined on pages 43-48 a full version of the College’s Academic Discipline Procedure. It explains stage by stage what will happen if you fail to maintain academic good standing in the eyes of the College by failing to comply with its academic requirements. The procedure is intended to be transparent and to give every opportunity for you to explain to your Tutors, to the Senior Tutor or to the President, any special circumstances which should be taken into account in reviewing your situation. As with all the College’s policies, the Academic Discipline Procedure is governed by the College’s commitment to the provision of equal treatment for all of its members. All Tutors wish to ensure that their students make the best use of their time at St John’s, so as long as you do this and work to the best of your ability then you should not be affected by the terms of the Academic Disciplinary Procedure. There have been very few instances in recent years where Penal Collections have been set and it is expected that there will be very few occasions when the Academic Disciplinary Committee would need to meet. You should, however, take the time to read the Procedure so that you have as clear as possible an idea of the consequences of not maintaining a standard of work commensurate with your abilities.

FAILURE IN THE FIRST PUBLIC EXAMINATION (FIRST-YEAR EXAMS)
A candidate who fails to satisfy the examiners in their initial attempt at the First Public Examination is permitted to re-enter on one further occasion (in accordance with the regulations governing a re-sit in that subject), at the next possible occasion.

The Senior Tutor will write to any undergraduate who fails the First Public Examination at the first attempt. The letter will clarify the academic support offered in preparing for the re-sit, make clear the possible consequence of termination of the course in the event of a second failure and remind the recipient of the importance of disclosing any extenuating circumstances which may have affected performance in the First Public Examination. A further letter will be sent in the event of failure of the First Public Examination at the second attempt to notify the student concerned that their course will be terminated. An undergraduate will have the right to appeal this decision to the Education Committee of the University if it is agreed that the second failure is as a result of exceptional circumstances.

YOUR ACADEMIC LIFE IN COLLEGE: FROM ADMISSION TO GRADUATION
As a member of St John’s you are part of our academic community, and academic work will be central to your college life during term. The following section is intended to lay out clearly what the College’s academic expectations of you are, and how it helps you to meet them. It also gives information about the resources available to you through the College to support you in your studies here.

THE JUNIOR COMMON ROOM
Many social aspects of life in College come through the Junior Common Room (the JCR). You will be a member of the JCR and able to take part in JCR activities including, if you wish, to stand for election for various JCR posts. These JCR Officerships are important for the life of the College and very worthwhile activities but you should also keep in mind the balance between time devoted to academic studies and social activities.

Students wishing to stand for election as JCR President are expected to consult their College Tutors before declaring their candidature. Tutors who are opposed to a student standing for a JCR office may choose to draw this to the attention of the Senior Tutor, who will then discuss the matter with the student concerned.

OXFORD STUDENT GATEWAY AND STUDENT SELF SERVICE
The Oxford Student Gateway and Student Self Service (provide access to information, services and resources for students. The University’s IT Services will send your Oxford Single Sign-On IT credentials by email to you before you arrive in Oxford so that you may access Student Self Service.

Student Self Service provides you with access to your student record; essential information that you will need throughout your academic career. You will be able to access Student Self Service, and the facilities offered, once you have completed your student registration. If you are a new student or returning to do a new programme of study, the College will complete the registration process for you. In subsequent years you will need to register once a year, at the anniversary of the term in which you started your current course.

You must register in order to:

• Attend your course
• Release your loan from the UK Student Loans Company (SLC) or your sponsor/awarding body (where appropriate)
• Enter for University examinations and assessments and gain access to your results
• Use your University email account
• Obtain your University card/keep your University card valid
• Print an enrolment certificate
• Book a degree ceremony.

It is your responsibility to update your personal information and contact details, including your emergency contact details, throughout your studies at the University of Oxford using Student Self Service. Your name, as recorded on Student Self Service, will appear on all University documentation, including your degree certificate, so please do ensure you check and amend your details as necessary.

MATRICULATION
Matriculation is the ceremony that marks your formal admission to the University. It only occurs once, at the outset of your Oxford career, regardless of the number of courses you may eventually undertake. Although not compulsory, the majority of students attend the main Matriculation Ceremony which is held on the Saturday of week 1 of each Michaelmas Term.

ACADEMIC DRESS
Academic dress is known as Sub-Fusc. You should wear your preferred sub fusc from the following list: i) one of a dark suit with dark socks, or a dark skirt with black tights or stockings, or dark trousers with dark socks; ii) a dark coat if required; iii) black shoes; iv) plain white collared shirt or blouse; v) white bow tie, black bow tie, black full-length tie, or black ribbon. Candidates serving in HM Forces are permitted to wear uniform together with a gown. ‘Subfusc’ clothing must be worn with a gown and mortar board or cap, with hoods being worn by graduates at University examinations and presentations for degrees. Those reading for a second BA degree may wear a graduate gown, but when sitting examinations must wear a Commoner’s or Scholar’s gown, as appropriate.

You will be required to wear Sub-Fusc when attending the Matriculation Ceremony, sitting your Public Examinations and on your Degree Day. Anyone who is not correctly dressed on these occasions may be turned away by the University Officials. Sub-Fusc clothing may also be requested for rather less formal events. Always check your invitation card/letter to all events, since it will specify the dress required.
EXAMINATIONS ENTRY

Students are required to enter for examinations via an online process using Student Self Service. You will receive an email invitation from the University to login to Student Self Service to complete your optional examination entry assessment selections by a given date. Your selections will be validated and confirmed by a series of display screens within Student Self Service, and you will be able to log back in and change your choices within the examination entry window as many times as you wish.

For examination entry which includes a combination of core and optional assessment units, your core assessment units will be listed alongside optional assessment units.

Entries completed late will be subject to a late entry fee, as will changes of option(s) made after the closure of the examination entry window.

Candidate numbers are sent to candidates directly from the Examination Schools. The Academic Office does not hold records of candidates’ numbers; if you mislay your number you will be able to find it via Student Self Service.

Please contact the Academic Office if you have any queries relating to examination entries.

ALTERNATIVE EXAMINATION ARRANGEMENTS

If you would like to apply for alternative arrangements to be put in place for your examinations because you have a Specific Learning Difficulty (SpLD), disability or chronic medical condition please contact the College’s Disability Co-ordinator, Mrs Elaine Eastgate, straight away (Academic Office, Room 23). If you have a medical condition which means it would be difficult for you to sit exams in the Examination Schools you may be granted permission by the University to take examinations in College. In all cases, suitable supporting documentation is required. This may be provided by the University’s Disability Advisory Service or it may be a medical certificate from the College Doctor. If you are unsure whether you may be eligible to apply for alternative arrangements or if you have any other queries, please contact Mrs Eastgate.

If your examination timetable includes clashes with religious observances you wish to uphold the College can apply to the University for an adjustment to your timetable. Please speak to Mrs Eastgate as soon as possible in the Michaelmas Term prior to your examinations to explore what adjustments might be possible and to arrange for the College to make an application on your behalf.
IF YOUR ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE IS AFFECTED BY ILL HEALTH/SIGNIFICANT ADVERSE PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

If you are unwell during term so that your studies are affected, you should ensure your Tutor is kept informed. If you are aware that your work in preparation for, or during, a University Examination is affected by illness you are strongly advised to let your Tutor and the Academic Administrator know so that the College can take what action is possible to support you.

If you have a problem before or during your exams, or in relation to your submitted work, that you think has seriously affected your performance, you can submit a ‘mitigating circumstances notice’ or MCE so that the examiners are made aware of the situation.

You should only submit a notice when you have suffered a serious problem – either medical or personal. Examiners are limited in the way they can take such circumstances into account, as ultimately they have to assess your performance on the work that has been produced.

If your examination preparation, rather than the examinations themselves, was affected, it is only likely to be appropriate to submit a notice if the impact on you was very severe.

Independent evidence, such as a medical certificate or supporting letter from your college or department (for non-medical circumstances), should always be submitted along with your notice. Examples of the kind of problem that might prompt you to submit a notice where there has been a significant impact on your performance are:

- acute illness
- bereavement
- other significant adverse personal circumstances (e.g. the impact of crime).

If you have a disability or long-term health condition, you should ensure that you apply for alternative examination arrangements if appropriate. If you think that your performance has still been affected by your disability or condition, despite the alternative arrangements and other support in place, or you suffer another serious problem such as an acute illness just before or during the exams, you can also submit a mitigating circumstances notice.

ACADEMIC APPEALS

A student can raise an academic appeal with the Proctors within 20 working days of the date of the decision they are challenging under the University Academic Appeals Procedure. An academic appeal is an appeal against the decision of an academic body (e.g. boards of examiners, transfer and confirmation decisions etc.) in terms of whether the procedures were followed properly, errors were made or the process was biased in some way. There is no right of appeal over matters of academic judgement – i.e. decisions that can only be made by applying an academic expert opinion. Therefore a student cannot appeal because they disagree with the examiners’ assessment of how well they met the assessment criteria. The University’s student-facing site provides further information available for students who wish to make an academic appeal.

Factual information which may be shared following the raising of an academic appeal includes:
- Confirming that all marks/results were taken into consideration
- How the course conventions were applied when considering the student's results
- How their MCE was considered by the Board of Examiners
- Explanation as to what is a borderline candidate and whether they met the criteria
- Explanation as to why the student did not meet the criteria to be awarded a higher classification.

OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT ADJUDICATOR
The OIA provides an independent scheme for the review of student complaints. Where the OIA rules in favour of a student, it may recommend that the University or college should do something (e.g. look again at a complaint, or pay compensation) or refrain from doing something. In order to activate the OIA procedures, you must be a current or former student of the University or one of the colleges and must have first exhausted all the available internal procedures. To confirm that your case has been dealt with internally, you need to obtain a Completion of Procedures letter from the College. You have a maximum of twelve months from the date of that letter to apply to the OIA.

The Independent Adjudicator can deal with complaints about:
- programmes of study or research
- services provided to you as a student by the University and/or by your college
- a final decision by the University or by your college about a disciplinary matter or a complaint.

The OIA cannot, however, deal with complaints about matters of academic judgement, matters that are the subject of legal proceedings, or matters relating to student employment.

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION REGULATIONS
The University Examination Regulations govern all undergraduate degrees. It is your responsibility to be aware of the regulations governing your course. Most Departments and Faculties will produce a course handbook covering each undergraduate course but the Examination Regulations remain the authoritative version and take precedence over regulations published elsewhere.

THE UNIVERSITY PROCTORS AND THE ASSESSOR
The Senior and Junior Proctors are senior officers of the University elected annually by colleges. They are responsible for ensuring that the University operates according to its statutes. Amongst other things they deal with University (as distinct from college) student discipline, complaints about University matters, and the running of University examinations. They also carry out ceremonial duties, e.g. at degree ceremonies. The Assessor is the third senior officer, responsible particularly for student welfare and finance.

The University’s Student Handbook explains the role of the Proctors and Assessor and provides much useful information about welfare, support, recreation, examinations and University regulations.

DEGREE CEREMONIES
Once you have passed your Final Honours School you will be able to make arrangements to collect your degree. Degree ceremonies are administered by the University and are scheduled for various days throughout the year.

You will receive an email from the University’s Degree Conferrals Team at the start of your final year with information about how to book a place at a degree ceremony. The College reserves the right to refuse to enter the name of any junior member for conferment of a degree until debts or dues outstanding to the College are cleared and all library items and any other College property have been returned. Please note also that the University may choose not permit a junior member to graduate if they have any outstanding debts to the University, or have items which have not been returned to University libraries.

If you are unable to attend a ceremony in person, there is the option to have your degree conferred in absentia. If you have any queries about taking your degree please email the Academic Office.

THE COLLEGE LIBRARY AND STUDY CENTRE
The College Library aims to provide an efficient and friendly study support service to all members of College, as well as participating in the broader cultural enrichment of College life. Its extensive collections provide support for most undergraduate studies and some postgraduate studies, whilst its rich historic collections draw researchers from around the world.
Full details of Library services, together with further information on the library’s history and collections, may be found on the College intranet or by contacting library@sjc.ox.ac.uk

COMPUTING FACILITIES

IT within St John’s and Oxford University can be confusing at times as some systems are handled directly by the College whilst others are managed centrally by the University. You may also need to access systems run separately by your department.

Single Sign On (SSO) account:

All new students are automatically registered for an Oxford University ‘single sign on’ user account (often known as an SSO) when they start in Oxford. Undergraduates are sent the activation code over the summer before their arrival and postgraduates receive their SSO when they complete their University contracts.

Once you have the activation code you can use this to register online to set up your SSO and set a password and secondary security method. This SSO password will also enable access to your Oxford ‘Nexus 365’ email account.

Your SSO is also required to set up a ‘remote access’ password to allow you to connect to the eduroam WiFi which is used throughout College and the University, and to sign in to the College Intranet and a number of other Oxford systems.

The SSO user name will typically look like ‘sjoh’ followed by four numbers (e.g. sjoh9999). If you are a postgraduate and have already studied in Oxford you will keep your existing SSO username. It will just be reactivated by IT Services and you will be allocated an @sjc.ox.ac.uk email address which delivers to it.

Oxford Email

Email in Oxford is handled centrally by the University and uses the Microsoft Office 365 system. The Oxford email system is generally known as Nexus or Nexus 365. Oxford email addresses are typically in the form of firstname.lastname@unit.ox.ac.uk where unit is the name of the college or department. For example, a St John’s email address would look like john.smith@sjc.ox.ac.uk

The College will use your Oxford @sjc.ox.ac.uk email address for academic purposes and official correspondence. Therefore, you must check it regularly (or set up an automatic forward to another email address you already use). Apart from illness or other unavoidable cause, no excuse is accepted for failure to respond promptly to emails from College Officers and College Staff.
You can check your email via a web browser. You can also configure your own phone, computer and/or tablet to access the Oxford email system.

For more details on Oxford Nexus 365 email, and how to receive it, please see the University’s ‘Getting onto email’ advice.

You may also get a departmental email address. Usually this will also deliver to the same ‘mailbox’ as your college account. (There are a few departments which also run their own independent email systems and their IT staff will give you information when you start your course on how to access them.)

Connecting to the Internet: WiFi

St John’s uses the eduroam system for wireless networking. This is available across almost all of St John’s College and most of the college’s outside houses and annexes. The eduroam system is used by almost all the departments and colleges within Oxford and once set up you will be able to use eduroam WiFi not only around St John’s but also at many other Oxford locations including the libraries, departments and other University buildings. As a multinational standard Oxford users can also use eduroam at other participating organizations around the world to connect automatically.

To connect to eduroam WiFi you must first register for an Oxford Remote Access account.

Please note for security and operational reasons personal routers including wireless routers are not allowed on the College and University networks.

Although it is possible to connect devices like most tablets and smart phones to the Oxford wireless system most domestic home wireless printers and wireless speakers (as well as similar devices intended for home use) will not work on the University’s eduroam wireless systems.

Wired connections

As well as being able to connect wirelessly you can also connect from your College room or the St John’s library using a wired Ethernet connection. This is typically a higher speed and more reliable connection than using wireless.

To use the wired connection you must first go through the online registration system: When you first connect to the Internet with the wired connection and open up a web browser you will automatically be redirected to our ‘Network Access Control’ web registration system. To register you must have set up your SSO account (see above).

The registration system takes your details and then checks your computer meets the University requirements. Your computer must have a supported version of Windows or MacOS with all the latest security updates installed. It must also have antivirus software installed. The College allows computers installed with Windows 10, Mac OS 10.14 or a current version of Linux to connect.
A number of Apple Macs fail to get through registration as they have no antivirus installed. If your computer fails the checks you will be given the opportunity to install updates online and try the test again. Once your computer has passed through registration you will be on the Internet.

Please note that the Oxford network is a frequent target for 'hacking' attempts and, while the majority of computers are secure, a small number are compromised each year (often because they have not got up to date Windows updates or Mac updates installed). In order to minimize risks to all College users, the College has implemented network access rules which have to be agreed to by anyone wanting to connect a computer to the College network from their room. These are primarily University rules but with a few College additions; most importantly an agreement to let College have control of your computer if it is part of a major breach of network security or rules. Full details of the network access rules are provided by the registration system before a computer is connected to the wired network.

IT in the College Libraries

Database terminals are located in the Library Study centre. Law students also have access to terminals in the Law Library. From these terminals a variety of online journals and many databases are available.

Printing

Student printing is available in college at 3 locations (4 for law students). You can print to A4 single or double sided. Mono/grayscale printing is currently free. Colour printing is charged at 10p per side and is billed via your termly Battels statement. Students can submit print jobs to the printers remotely via the web and then go to the printers to collect them when convenient (using your University card at the printer to login and release the saved print job). There is a printer in the basement of the Library Study Centre, one for undergraduate use in the JCR Lounge, and one for graduate students in the MCR building. Law students have access to one in the St John’s Law Library.

IT Support

Students needing help or support regarding computing issues can contact the College IT Officers or the help desk service at IT Services.

St John’s has two full-time IT Officers, Neil McIntosh and Ashby Hope. They manage the day-to-day running of all aspects of IT within St John’s. They offer (office hours) appointment based IT help and can be contacted by telephone 01865 277365 or email to request an appointment, or to arrange a remote IT support session. St John’s IT is managed by Matt Jennings. If you have departmental software and systems problems then the IT Officer(s) at your department or faculty will be able to provide assistance.
University IT Services

The University’s IT Services department runs a number of the University’s computing facilities. They provide a Help Desk service, including a level of 24 hour support by their telephone line.

Learning programme

IT Services offers via the “IT Learning Programme (ITLP)” over 200 different IT courses that can help you with your studies, research and future careers. They include courses on using computer and the major applications (such as training courses in Word, Excel etc.). They also run courses on the programming languages.

Antivirus

IT Services also provide free Sophos antivirus software to those that need it. It is a University requirement that all computers connected to the network run current

Microsoft Office and other software

Microsoft Office 365 ‘online’ is available free of charge to Oxford students and copies of the Microsoft Office desktop applications (such as Word, Excel and PowerPoint) can also be downloaded for free. Some other academic software is also available, sometimes for free or sometimes at a discounted price.

Additional Information

If you want to publish your own website you can do so on the central managed web server.

IT Services offers (via a third party, Equinox) a very economically priced breakdown service for PC and Apple Mac personal computers, as well as their peripherals.

Further IT information aimed at freshers in Oxford, including how to have your computer connected to the network and how Oxford University email works

The College website has helpful information on a number of topics including IT and the various systems used in College and the University.

Once you have your SSO there is also the St John’s Intranet (to access the Intranet you need to be either on the Oxford network or connected via the Oxford VPN system).

JCR & MCR websites

The JCR and MCR also have their own websites with useful information for undergraduates and postgraduates respectively.
SCHOLARSHIPS AND BOOK PRIZES
The College is keen to encourage work of a high standard and offers the award of Scholarships and Prizes for those who have been making particularly good progress in their studies and for those who have achieved an outstanding performance in Public Examinations. Scholarships are awarded by the College’s Governing Body and renewed each year, conditional upon maintained work and progress. Awards may be removed at any time for work which is consistently below standard. The decision-making process is governed by the College’s overall commitment to equality of provision irrespective of race, ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion or belief, age or disability.

Scholarships and Prizes are awarded as followed:

First year examinations:
An undergraduate who is awarded a Distinction or First in the First Public Examination is normally awarded a Scholarship. The value of a Scholarship is £300 per year. Scholarships may be awarded to undergraduates who very narrowly miss Firsts or Distinctions in the First Public Examination, subject to the following guidelines:

An undergraduate who does not get a Distinction or First in the First Public Examination in a subject which has second-year examinations with at least two papers counting towards Finals should not be awarded a Scholarship before the second-year exams.

An undergraduate who does not get a Distinction or First in the First Public Examination in a subject which does not have second-year examinations may be awarded a Scholarship if the proportion of Distinctions or Firsts in that subject in a typical year is particularly low and if the undergraduate’s marks were very close to the borderline.

For work during the academic year
An undergraduate student who does not achieve a Distinction or First in the First Public Examination, in a subject which does not have second-year examinations, may be awarded a Scholarship on the basis of First class marks in at least two Collection papers taken at any point during the course of a single academic year.

Prizes
Undergraduates who do not get Distinctions or Firsts but have performed well and are worthy of encouragement may be awarded a Prize of £75.
Second-year examinations and third-year examinations in four-year degrees:
This section concerns sets of examinations consisting of at least two papers and counting towards Finals.

An undergraduate who is already a Scholar and who achieves first-class marks overall in such examinations is normally awarded a Prize of £75. An undergraduate who is not already a Scholar and who achieves first-class marks overall in such examinations is normally awarded a Scholarship. An undergraduate who is not a Scholar who performs well (but does not achieve first-class marks overall) and is worthy of encouragement may be awarded a £75 Prize.

Final Honour Schools
An undergraduate who completes Finals and is awarded a First receives a prize of £175.

Others
Any undergraduate who is awarded a major University prize may be awarded a Scholarship.

Whilst scholars do not normally receive Prizes for term work and Collections, these are not ruled out in cases of exceptional achievement. Other undergraduates may be given a prizes for tutorial work or collections, even for performances below first-class standard if there is a prospect that this will encourage the undergraduates to higher achievement. These prizes are awarded by the Governing Body on the recommendation of Tutors.
EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

CHANGES OF COURSE
Your offer of a place at St John’s was for a particular subject, and this under normal circumstances should be the subject for which you study whilst at St John’s. There are very occasionally students who either before or on arrival decide that they would like to change to another subject, or who consider this course of action at some point during their first year of study. The College is willing to consider applications to change to a different subject, provided it is satisfied that the student concerned is qualified to read the School with profit and that the change will not disrupt the arrangements made for the tuition of other students. There are often constraints such as the availability of tuition or differences in timing of the First Public Examination which make changes difficult or impossible.

If you are considering making a request for permission to change subject, you should consult the Senior Tutor at the earliest possible stage. In doing so you must remember that you do not have a right to change subject and all the factors mentioned above will be taken into account in each case. If you request permission to change subject immediately before or after the First Public Examination, then permission will normally be conditional upon a good performance in that examination. Any student wishing to change subject will be required to undergo an admissions interview with the relevant subject Tutors in College. No undergraduate may change their course of study without the prior consent of the Senior Tutor.

SUSPENDING YOUR STUDIES
Under certain circumstances College may be willing to consider a request for permission to go out of residence for a year, for example on the basis of medical reports concerning a serious and long-term condition. Requests to go out of residence on non-medical grounds, for example for compassionate or personal reasons (e.g. to undertake caring responsibilities) will be considered on a case-by-case basis. In operating this policy, the College aims to be in line with the University policy on Parental Leave.

Although the College itself does not have any rules covering the length of time a student may take to complete their course, the University’s regulations state that a student on a three-year course must take their final examination within fifteen terms of their matriculation, and a student on a four-year course must complete within eighteen terms of their matriculation. These regulations are outlined in the University Examination Regulations. For further information on suspension of studies please refer to the College’s Policy on Undergraduate Suspension of Status on pages 60-70.
FITNESS TO STUDY
Fitness to study refers to two situations; one where a student is not well enough to continue their course of study, the other where a student, whilst physically well, is nevertheless not academically fit to study. The College’s Fitness to Study Procedure is on pages 71-81.

The University has a Fitness to Study Panel to consider issues relating to a student's fitness to study referred to it by a college, a faculty or department of the University, the Proctors, the Student Disciplinary Panel, or the Student Appeal Panel. The Panel decides issues for the University and is able to make recommendations to a college.

IF THINGS ARE NOT GOING SO WELL, WHAT CAN YOU DO?

For detailed information about welfare provision in College please refer to the College’s Welfare Guide, which draws together information on welfare matters, that is wellbeing and health, within St John’s for undergraduate and graduate students with the aim of being as comprehensive as possible, enabling everyone to find authoritative information quickly.

Who’s who in St John’s Senior Welfare team?

Dr Elizabeth Macfarlane, Fellow for Welfare and Chaplain

Elizabeth has twenty years’ experience of welfare work, first as a parish priest, and from 2011 as Chaplain of St John’s. Since 2016, she has been the college’s student welfare lead, working with the team members and co-ordinating the links with the University services. She is not a counsellor, or a medic, but she can help you find the help you need. She is a person with a religious identity which underpins her commitment to care and enable others, and does not limit her ability to work with all students, irrespective of their religious views.

Elizabeth often offers meetings which take in a walk, and a cup of coffee (or hot chocolate), and so, because she’s sometimes out of her office, the best way to contact her is by email

Disabilities Coordinator: Mrs Elaine Eastgate

Mrs Eastgate is St John’s Disability Coordinator, and she works closely with the University’s Disability Advisory Service. If you have a specific learning difficulty, or a physical or mental health issue which might affect you during your time at St John’s, please contact Elaine in confidence to talk about how to register with the DAS. You can do this at any point, but starting the conversation early is advised. Elaine works regular office hours and the best way to contact her is via email.

College psychologist: Dr Denise Barulis

Dr Denise Barulis is an experienced psychotherapist who works in both the National Health Service (NHS) and private practice. She has been part of the St John’s welfare team for more than a decade, working with generations of students, and she is in college on Thursdays from weeks 0-9. The best way to contact Denise is by email, and please be aware that she may take a few days to respond.

College nurse: TBC

Arrangements to be confirmed: please watch this space for an update on the appointment of a new college nurse.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Responsibility for meeting the needs of disabled students is shared across the Collegiate University. The Common Framework for supporting disabled students sets out the principles that underpin the procedures for supporting disabled students.

The College is committed to making reasonable adjustments in order to put in place recommended support for students with disabilities. Please contact Mrs Elaine Eastgate, the College’s Disability Contact, in the first instance. The College can also liaise on your behalf with your Faculty or Department, the Examination Schools and the University’s Disability Advisory Service.

The University’s Disability Advisory Service (DAS) provides information and advice on disability issues and facilitates support for those with, for example, sensory or mobility impairments, long-term health conditions, specific learning disabilities, autistic spectrum conditions or mental health difficulties. The DAS plays a central role in assessing student need and making recommendations for reasonable adjustments to remove disability-related barriers including working in collaboration with, and providing advice and guidance for, students, colleges, departments and other relevant sections of the collegiate University.

We strongly encourage you to let the Disability Advisory Service know if you have (or think you might have) a disability as early as possible so that they can advise on the range of study support that is available and can make any support arrangements that may be required. You can contact the DAS team to speak to a Disability Advisor who will be happy to answer any questions you might have via:

- Email: disability@admin.ox.ac.uk
- Phone +44 (0)1865 280459
- In person at 3 Worcester Street, Oxford, OX1 2BX

It is not obligatory to disclose a disability but early disclosure will help the College to make the adjustments necessary to help students with disabilities to study effectively. If disclosure is not made at the time of application, it may not be possible for the College to make accommodation arrangements in response to individual circumstances. The College may require independent verification of the particular requirements claimed.

The Disability Advisor Service are planning to offer a hybrid in person/online consultation service during Michaelmas Term 2021.

SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS WITH PARTNERS AND/OR CARING RESPONSIBILITIES

St John’s College is committed to being an inclusive and diverse community and to ensuring the full participation of all its members, including parents and carers. Hence, wherever possible, arrangements will be made to support members with caring responsibilities to participate fully in the academic and social community of St John’s. The parental leave framework can be found under the College Policies section of the College website.

The College has a limited amount of accommodation suitable for students who will be in Oxford with their partner and/or children. The Accommodation Office can provide details on request. The University of Oxford Newcomers’ Club is an organization, run by volunteers, whose aim is to help the newly-arrived wives, husbands or partners of visiting scholars, of graduate students and of newly appointed academic members of the University to settle in and to give them the opportunity to meet people in Oxford. Membership is free.

The College has a purpose-built college nursery which provides places for babies and young children of College and University staff and students. Located beside the College Sports Ground off Bainton Road in north Oxford, the nursery incorporates a range of state-of-the-art facilities while being homely, warm and welcoming for babies and young children up to the age of five. Students wishing to apply for a place should contact the Nursery Manager at the Bainton Road Nursery.

Oxford SU

Oxford Student Union is the official students’ union, representing all matriculated students of the University.

HEALTHCARE

MEDICAL SERVICES IN THE UK

The National Health Service (NHS) is the UK’s state health service, and provides a full range of medical treatment. The UK Council for International Student Affairs gives a good summary of the services provided by the NHS and which service should be used for which type of illness.

If you are coming to the UK for the first time, you are likely to notice a number of differences between the healthcare system here and the system in your home country. For example, you would expect to visit a General Practitioner (known as GPs, these are medical doctors based in a community health centre/surgery) for most health complaints rather than going straight to see a specialist at a hospital. Another difference is that, for students whose course lasts more than six months, much of the healthcare provided by the NHS is free at the point of delivery.

IMMIGRATION HEALTH SURCHARGE (IHS) FOR ACCESS TO NHS TREATMENT

If you are an overseas student in the UK for more than 6 months you may need to pay a healthcare surcharge (called the IHS) as part of your visa application. Further information is available on the UK Government website.

MEDICAL CARE

All students and their dependents who are studying in the UK for six months or more are entitled to register with the NHS, which is a Government-funded service. As a patient, you can access the NHS through your College Doctor who is a General Practitioner (GP). You cannot consult a medical specialist without going through your College Doctor first.

It is a requirement of the NHS and the University that students are registered with a doctor at their University, not at home. You may be seen as a temporary resident with your home GP during the vacation. You should register before you arrive in Oxford or as soon as possible afterward. Please do not leave registering until you need to see a doctor.

The College has a number of professionally trained people available for consultation by College members:
The College Doctors: Dr Meriel Raine, Dr Richard Silvester and their colleagues in the 19 Beaumont Street practice are the doctors used by most St John's students. Appointments should be made by telephone directly to the surgery (01865 240501). Students who are not registered with the College Medical Officer must inform the Lodge Manager of the name, address and telephone number of their doctor.

There are several benefits to being registered with the college doctor:

- The practice can act as a gateway to all other sources of help for students.
- GPs at the College Medical Practice are able to arrange referral to local hospitals.
- The college doctor can liaise with college authorities at times of exams etc. (but only with your express permission – we never discuss your medical issues with anyone in the College, your friends or your family unless you ask us to do so).

Dental Services: Studental, Oxford Brookes University, Headington Campus; Telephone 01865 689997; e-mail: reception@studental.co.uk; Hours Monday-Friday, 8.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. Students are offered NHS treatment; please note that students do not necessarily qualify for free treatment, most students aged 19 or older will need to apply for a HC2 certificate (application form available from Studental) in order to receive free treatment and must bring proof of their exemption to their first appointment.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL CARE
If you are in College, please do not call 999 yourself but let the Lodge know about any emergency situation by calling 77300 from an internal phone or +44 (0)1865 277300.

In an emergency situation outside the College, call 999 from a mobile phone (or 9-999 from a College landline) to access ambulance, police or fire services. The 999 line is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and are free from landlines and mobile phones.

Always call 999 if, for example, someone is seriously ill/injured or a crime is in progress. Once you are connected to a 999 operator or call handler, they will ask you a series of questions to establish what is wrong. This will allow them to determine the most appropriate response as quickly as possible.

SEXUAL HEALTH
The College Doctors and College Nurse are available to offer support and advice on matters of sexual health. The nearest Sexual Health Clinic is at the Churchill Hospital, Headington.
HARASSMENT
The College endeavours to encourage a culture of non-tolerance of any form of harassment. It is committed to promoting equality and diversity, and aims to provide an environment in which all students, employees, contractors, and visitors are treated with dignity and respect, and in which they can work and study free from any type of discrimination, harassment, or victimisation. Those in positions of seniority within the College, including the President, Senior Tutor, and the Senior Dean, will do their utmost to ensure that this commitment is upheld by all members of the College.

The College’s Harassment Policy should be read in conjunction with the College’s Equality Policy.

St John’s College Harassment Advisers for 2022-23 are:

- Kate Doornik (kate.doornik@sjc.ox.ac.uk) – Fellow for Equality
- KJ Patel (ketan.patel@imm.ox.ac.uk) – Fellow for Ethnic Minorities
- Zuzanna Olszewska (zuzanna.olszewska@sjc.ox.ac.uk) – Fellow for Women

The University Policy and Procedure on Harassment should be read in conjunction with information for staff and students on the University's response to Harassment and Bullying including support and advice.

SAFETY
Like any other large city, Oxford suffers its share of problems. Please use common sense when out after dark and keep to well-lit and well-populated areas. Most College Rooms have door chains, but if your room does not and you would like one, please ask at the Accommodation Office or the Works Department. Incidents of theft and intrusion do occur in College and you should lock your door when leaving your room even for a short period.

SAFETY AND FIRE PRECAUTIONS
The College’s Domestic Bursar, Mr Neil Tindall, is also the College Safety Officer and as such has general responsibility for implementing safety policy but every member of the College has, by law, a personal responsibility for communal safety.

Common sense usually suggests what is safe, but there is specific advice about fire. This is detailed in a notice, FIRE PRECAUTIONS, which is provided in every College room and must be kept clearly visible. All occupants of College rooms are expected to read the notice and to think in advance what they would do if there were a fire. To ensure maximum safety and also to avoid false alarms, fire doors must be kept closed at all times and cooking must be restricted to... authorised locations. If you cause a fire by cooking in an unauthorised location, the penalties will be very severe. Avoidable false alarms caused, for example, by burning food or leaving kitchen doors open attract an automatic fine.

Tampering with fire extinguishers, alarms and safety equipment is an offence which is regarded by the College as serious, and by the law as criminal.

See also the College's Health and Safety and Fire policies.

DRUGS

It is a criminal offence for the College to permit the use of illegal drugs on any of its premises. Any junior member found in possession of illegal substances may expect, in the first instance, a fine and a formal warning, which may escalate to exclusion from college accommodation should there be any recurrence. Any individual involved in the manufacture or supply of illegal drugs, on however small a scale, and whether on College premises or elsewhere, should expect to be excluded from College accommodation. Junior members are reminded that many professional organisations do not admit persons with a record of substance abuse. The College realises that students may be concerned about issues of addiction and use of illegal substances, both for themselves and for their friends. Advice may be sought from the College medical practice at 19 Beaumont Street; any concerns that might be raised will be treated under the rules of medical confidentiality. Information may be accessed online at TalktoFrank and Frank offers a confidential helpline 0300 123 6600.

ALCOHOL

Alcohol is as much of a risk to student welfare as are illegal drugs. Drunkenness can put individuals into dangerous situations or lead them to engage in risky behaviour. The psychological, physical and reputational damage can be serious, especially given the prevalence of social media. All Junior Members are therefore urged to be careful and moderate in consuming alcohol. It is usual each year for the College to admit one or two students who are under 18 at the start of their degree course. Please be aware that the College does not allow under 18s to drink alcohol on college premises, nor should it be bought for them. The College will not tolerate anti-social behaviour resulting from excessive consumption of alcohol and in dealing with instances of anti-social behaviour, consumption of alcohol will be regarded by the Senior Dean as an exacerbating rather than a mitigating factor. The organisation of ‘drinking games’ or exertion of pressure on others to consume alcohol are prohibited. Instances of any of these anti-social behaviours on College premises will be treated as serious offences: initially this will result in a fine and a formal warning, which may escalate to exclusion from college accommodation should there be any recurrence.
MONEY MATTERS
If you experience financial or other problems that might affect your ability to pursue your studies, you are urged to discuss these problems at the earliest possible stage. Students often choose to raise their concerns with a member of the Welfare Team such as the Fellow for Welfare or the Senior Dean. You may also choose to speak to your Tutors, the Finance Bursar, the Senior Tutor, or the President.

BATTELS
Accounts (battels) for each term are issued at the beginning of each term, except that final battels for students leaving residence are sent by post around the end of August each year. Students are expected to pay their battels within one week of their receipt. The Bursar is authorised to charge interest on money owed. Anyone who has concerns about paying battels on time should contact the Finance Bursar.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES
Special Grants are available to undergraduate students of St. John’s for special academic purposes, for example to cover travel or accommodation outside Oxford. The purpose need not be directly related to your course - for instance, a student could apply to visit sites or museums, to attend a course of study or a conference, to undertake research outside Oxford, etc. Applicants are expected to give their Tutors a detailed schedule of what they wish to do, and Tutors are required to write in recommendation. Notes of guidance and links to online application forms are available on the College website. Applications should be made by 12 noon on Thursday of Week 5 in Michaelmas Term and Thursdays of Weeks 0 and 5 in Hilary and Trinity Terms.

VACATION RESIDENCE AND VACATION GRANT
If you have a valid reason you may seek permission to remain in College at the end of a term (i.e. after Saturday of 8th Week), or return before Thursday of 0th Week of the following term, or to stay in College during some part of a vacation. Vacation Residence must be requested via the ‘Vac Res booking system’ on the college Intranet. The window for requests opens around 4th week of each term. Further information is available in the College’s Domestic Arrangements.

ACADEMIC GRANTS
Undergraduate students are entitled to apply for help towards the purchase of approved books and materials of an academic nature. The grant may be used to pay for: the purchase of portable or hand-held computing devices, monitors, desktop computers, computer software or peripherals; the cost of memory/hard-disk up-grades or computer repairs; tickets for performances or exhibitions directly related to a student's course of study. The College will not reimburse the costs of travel, phone or data services, maintenance or insurance contracts for items purchased. Other items will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

You are strongly advised to seek advice from the Academic Office before purchasing any items not included in the list above in order to check whether the cost of your prospective purchase may be claimed from the Academic Grant. Students who are not in their final year may submit a claim for items purchased between the end of Trinity Term of one year and the beginning of the following Michaelmas Term, provided they do so by the 8th week of Michaelmas Term deadline. Grants are credited on the subsequent term’s battels for current students or paid by BACS on request; alternative arrangements are in place to reimburse final year students. The total claimed over the academic year must not exceed the maximum grant for that year. A note of previous claims should be made on subsequent claim forms to enable this to be verified.

LANGUAGE COURSES OFFERED BY THE UNIVERSITY LANGUAGE CENTRE
The College will reimburse the fee for students taking courses organized by the University Language Centre, subject to the following requirements:

- Undergraduate students require the permission of their subject tutors before registering for a Fast track course.
- The College will cover the cost of more than one course per year, subject to the approval of the relevant subject Tutor. However, only one Fast track course per year may be taken.
- The College will cover the cost of other suitable language courses offered by the University. Please check with the Academic Office in advance of booking a course to seek the Senior Tutor's approval.
- The College will expect to be reimbursed the cost of a course if attendance is poor and there are no mitigating circumstances.

To obtain reimbursement please forward electronic receipts to the Academic Administrator. If you would like to attend a course at the Language Centre but are not in a position to meet the cost up front please seek advice from the Academic Office as it may be possible to provide funding to students in advance if they would otherwise be unable to meet the cost of a course. Students may apply for a Special Grant to take language courses in other institutions.

EMPLOYMENT DURING TERM AND VACATIONS

Vacations: Academic work during the vacations is an essential part of your course, and you will be expected to pursue your studies, under the direction of your Tutor(s), outside Term. You will need to read in preparation for the next term's work, and you will need to consolidate the previous term's work, probably with Collections in view at the beginning of the next term. However, the College acknowledges that many students will need to boost their finances by taking paid work during vacations, and will raise no objection to the undertaking of paid vacation work, provided that you keep up with your work and maintain appropriate academic progress. It is, however, strongly recommended that you discuss proposals for vacation employment with your Tutor.

Full Term:
You will find that the heavy academic work load during Term leaves little time for other forms of work. If you want or need to carry out a limited amount of paid employment or voluntary work during the Term, you must get permission in advance from your subject Tutor(s), and also from the Senior Tutor. Student Visa holders must ensure that paid work does not affect their studies or breach conditions of their visa.

THE HARDSHIP COMMITTEE
The College has a fund for the relief of exceptional and unforeseeable financial hardship on the part of both undergraduates and graduates. Application to the Committee is made by completing a confidential form available from the Senior Dean, or on-line. Normally the application will be forwarded to the members of the Committee after a short discussion with the applicant, and a decision can usually be reached within a week; the whole process is treated in strict confidence. The Committee can offer grants, loans, deferment of payment of battels, or any appropriate combination of these.
COLLEGE POLICIES

The College maintains the following range of policies and codes of practice to help set expectations around the way that the College delivers its responsibilities and the way that we expect our members (students, staff, Fellows, Senior Members and others associated with the College) to conduct themselves.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND GUIDANCE
An A-Z of University policies and guidance is also available.
1. Requirements for the maintenance of good academic standing, and reporting:

(i) For the purposes of these procedures, ‘undergraduates’ includes graduates reading for a Final Honour School. It also includes Visiting Students following an undergraduate course of study at St John’s but not reading for a Final Honour School, except that 1(iii) shall not apply to such students.

(ii) Undergraduates are required to produce work of a standard commensurate with their individual ability and circumstances and appropriate to the stage which they have reached in their course. This will normally be of 2.I standard, but in no case of below Third Class standard. Undergraduates are not permitted to read for a Pass School.

(iii) Undergraduates must keep the residence requirements laid down by the University. An undergraduate who fails to do so will be sent down, unless they have been granted dispensation by the University.

(iv) Attendance at Tutorials, Collections, Tutor meetings and at classes required by Tutors is compulsory. Undergraduates must not absent themselves without prior permission except for illness or other urgent cause, which must be explained to the Tutor as soon as possible afterwards. Undergraduates must satisfy any conditions required by the Examination Decrees and Regulations relating to the particular School for which they are studying, e.g. for practical work or vacation courses.

(v) Every undergraduate is required to produce assignments (essays, problem sheets etc) with the regularity required by their Tutor(s), except where permission on adequate grounds is obtained, preferably in advance, from the Tutor(s) concerned.

(vi) Every undergraduate is required either to sit a written invigilated Collection at the beginning of term when required to do so, or to submit by the end of 0th Week written work specified by a Tutor and produced during the vacation, unless dispensed by their Tutor. Collections take precedence over all other engagements.

(vii) Marks awarded for Collections or other academic work set during the vacation, shall be submitted to the Senior Tutor by Tutors where possible by the end of 3rd Week of each term.
(viii) Undergraduates shall be summoned at the end of 8th Week before the President and Vice-President and their own subject Tutor(s) to hear reports on their work and progress.

2. Academic deficiency

‘Academic deficiency’ means breach of 1. (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) or (vi) above. It shall be dealt with according to the following Academic Disciplinary Procedure. Every breach of 1. (vi) and every breach of 1. (iv) or (v) lasting two consecutive weeks, shall normally entail the immediate initiation of the procedure.

Stage I: First Formal Warning

Academic deficiency is dealt with initially by a first formal warning, given by the Subject Tutor(s) after consultation with the Senior Tutor. (Where the undergraduate is not taught by a Fellow, the first formal warning will be given by the Senior Tutor). Such a warning may be given on the basis of information concerning academic deficiency received from an external Tutor or College Lecturer. A first formal warning shall normally be issued at a special interview with the student but may be issued by letter by the Senior Tutor if a student fails to attend a scheduled special interview. During this interview there will first be a full discussion during which the student will be invited to make the college aware of any mitigating or complicating circumstances. Any such factors which come to light will (with the undergraduate’s permission) be noted on the student’s file, and may affect the course of action to be taken and the outcomes of the interview. In any case a note will be put on the undergraduate’s file concerning the discussion and its outcomes. The note will include specification of the required improvements, confirmation of the timescale within which such improvements should be demonstrated to the Tutor’s satisfaction (normally within 1-4 weeks), and confirmation of the period over which the student will remain on probation against failure to sustain the improvements (normally until the start of the next term but one following that in which the warning is given). The student will receive a copy of this note within one week of the meeting. A copy of the Academic Disciplinary Procedure, will be enclosed with the note. If the student fails to attend the formal meeting with the Subject Tutors, then the first formal warning will be issued in writing to the student by the Senior Tutor.

Stage 2: Second Formal Warning

If the undergraduate fails to produce the improvements required in Stage I during the specified timescale, or fails to sustain them during the specified probation period, they shall be given a second formal warning by the Senior Tutor at a special interview. During this interview there will first be a full discussion during which the student will be invited to put their case and make the college aware of any mitigating or complicating circumstances. Any such factors which come to light will (with the undergraduate’s permission) be noted on the student’s file, and may affect the course of action to be taken and the outcomes of the interview. In any case a note will be put on the undergraduate’s file concerning the discussion and its outcomes. The note will include specification of the required improvements, confirmation of the timescale within which such improvements should be demonstrated to the Subject Tutor’s satisfaction (normally within 1-4 weeks), and confirmation of the period over which the student will remain on probation against failure to sustain the improvements (normally until the start of the next term but one following that in which the warning is given). The outcome of the interview will be confirmed in writing to the undergraduate concerned within one week, and will be copied to the relevant Subject Tutor.

Stage 3: Final Formal Warning
If the undergraduate fails to produce the improvements required in Stage 2 during the specified timescale, or fails to sustain them during the specified probation period, they shall be given a final formal warning by the President at a special interview. At this interview, the undergraduate will be given an opportunity to refute the allegation of unsatisfactory work or to bring to the attention of the President any special circumstances. Any such factors which come to light will (with the undergraduate’s permission) be noted on the student’s file, and may affect the course of action to be taken and the outcomes of the interview. In any case a note will be put on the undergraduate’s file concerning the discussion and its outcomes. The note will include specification of the required improvements, confirmation of the timescale within which such improvements should be demonstrated to the Subject Tutor’s satisfaction (normally within 1-2 weeks), and confirmation of the period over which the student will remain on probation against failure to sustain the improvements (normally until the start of the next term but one following that in which the warning is given). The outcomes of the interview will be confirmed in writing to the undergraduate concerned within one week, and will be copied to the relevant subject Tutor and to the Senior Tutor.

Stage 4: Penal Collections
If the undergraduate fails to produce the improvements required in Stage 3 during the specified timescale or to sustain them during the specified probation period:

(a) If the academic deficiency consists of substandard work, the undergraduate shall be set Penal Collections. The form of, date (which shall be as early as practicable) for, and standard to be attained in these Collections shall be approved by the Academic Disciplinary Committee on the advice of the Subject Tutor(s) and Senior Tutor, which advice shall be formulated after discussion with the undergraduate; the standard to be attained should not without good reason diverge from that required of the undergraduate in the formal warnings previously given. After the Academic Disciplinary Committee has approved these details, they shall be communicated by the Senior Tutor in writing to the undergraduate. Penal Collection papers shall be set externally and blind marked by two external assessors who shall not previously have taught the undergraduate in question. If the assessors’ marks differ, it shall be decided whether the required standard has been attained by taking their average. The outcome will be communicated to the undergraduate as soon as possible, and normally within two weeks. Failure to attain the required standard shall be referred to the Academic Disciplinary Committee. Attainment of the required standard shall be followed by probation against failure to sustain it for the remainder of the undergraduate’s time at the College, breach of which shall entail recommencement of the procedure at Stage 3.

(b) If the academic deficiency is of any other kind, it shall be referred directly to the Academic Disciplinary Committee.

Stage 5: Academic Disciplinary Committee
If it is necessary under Stage 4 to refer an undergraduate to the Academic Disciplinary Committee, the Senior Tutor shall immediately inform the President and Vice-President. The Vice-President shall convene the Committee, consisting of the Vice-President and four Official Fellows not being the undergraduate’s Tutors. The Committee shall proceed as follows:

(a) The Committee’s hearing shall take place as soon as practicable; normally within one week of the Senior Tutor’s informing the President and Vice-President. The undergraduate shall in advance of the hearing be given a clear statement of the grounds for their being referred to the Committee, and a copy of all documentation with which the Committee is provided. They should be given the opportunity to bring forward material considerations and mitigating circumstances which may include, but need not be confined to, medical evidence. The undergraduate should be allowed to take advice in advance of the hearing and should be adequately represented at the hearing itself, being given the chance either to make a written submission, or, if they prefer, to appear in person before the Committee. The undergraduate should in the latter case be offered the possibility of being accompanied by the person of their choice.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Committee to establish all relevant facts and to decide, bearing in mind the interests of the College and of the undergraduate, whether the undergraduate should be sent down; or should be suspended, to be readmitted into residence on such terms as the Committee should decide; or should be permitted to remain in residence, on such terms as the Committee should decide. The undergraduate, their representative or companion, and their Subject Tutor(s) should withdraw before a decision is made. The Committee’s decision, including a statement of all the relevant facts, shall be put in writing and conveyed to the undergraduate by the Vice-President.

(c) An undergraduate who, after any stage of the above procedure, attains what is required of them and meets the terms of any specified probation period, but who in the view of their Tutor demonstrates fresh academic deficiency (whether or not of the same kind as before), shall be reported by the Tutor to the Senior Tutor. The Senior Tutor shall then recommence the above procedure at Stage 2.

(d) If at any stage in the above procedure, it is concluded that the undergraduate is experiencing genuine difficulty in producing the standard of work of which they are in principle capable, a strategy will be agreed between the undergraduate, the subject Tutor(s) and the Senior Tutor whereby the undergraduate will have access to appropriate additional tuition/support. A note of the strategy will be sent to the undergraduate within a week of the agreement. The undergraduate’s progress under the strategy will be monitored on a weekly basis for a period to be decided by the Senior Tutor in consultation with the subject Tutor(s).

Stage 6: Appeal
If the undergraduate wishes to appeal against the decision of the Academic Disciplinary Committee they may do so, in the first instance according to the arrangements set out in the College’s Appeals Procedure.

Depending on the issue and the Conference of Colleges Appeal Tribunal Regulations an appellant who, after appealing according to the arrangements set out in the College’s Appeals Procedure, remains unhappy with the outcome of an appeal may be able to request that the College decision is considered by a Conference of Colleges appeal body or may themselves decide to refer the College decision to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (for which there is a time limit). The OIA will normally expect a student to exhaust their remedies through the College and/or University’s internal appeals processes before it will consider a referral.

First Public Examination
(a) An undergraduate may not continue to study at the college unless they have passed the First Public Examination before the beginning of their second year of study (or the fifth term in the case of Honour Moderations in Greek and Roman Language or Literature).
(b) An undergraduate who fails to pass a First Public Examination at their first attempt shall be required to retake the Examination at the next possible occasion.

(c) If the examination is failed at the second attempt, then unless there are clear mitigating circumstances, a student will be required to leave the University.
ST JOHN’S COLLEGE

COLLEGE REGULATIONS

The Deans, the President, and ultimately the Governing Body, are responsible for seeing that standards of civilized and mutually considerate behaviour are properly maintained and observed. The Deans maintain written regulations governing the behaviour of members. The regulations which follow are needed so that the College can function successfully and harmoniously as a large and complex community of junior members, senior members, administrative and domestic staff of many descriptions. The written regulations have evolved as the result of joint work by senior and junior members to help create conditions favourable to study for all members of College. All persons becoming members of the College do so on the understanding that they will abide by the written regulations.

The Deans are empowered at their discretion to impose a wide range of penalties on any junior member who commits a breach of the regulations. Where appropriate, the Deans will consult with the JCR and MCR Presidents before taking serious disciplinary measures. They also try to take account of the views of junior members of the College about the working of the regulations. An appeal against any decision of the Deans in the exercise of their discretion can be made to the President.

Reference is made at various points in the regulations to further instructions issued by the appropriate College Officers. These extensions of the regulations exist to permit a flexible treatment of matters of detail concerning the running of the College.

General

Members of the College are required:
1. To respect each other’s living and working conditions. They should not interfere with the teaching, study or research of other members, nor do anything likely to cause annoyance or offence to any person in or near the College.

2. To cooperate with any officer or member of the staff of the College in the performance of their duty, and to check their pigeon-holes and their email regularly (i.e. at least three times a week) while in residence and to read any communications from officers or members of staff of the College, unless unable to do so due to illness, disability or other unavoidable cause.
3. To observe the statutes, rules and regulations of the University.

4. To observe the rules for the use of the library and other parts, departments and facilities of the College issued by the appropriate College Officer. It is strictly forbidden to climb on any part of the College fabric, including its roofs.

5. Serious breaches of the rules and regulations of either College or University may entail suspension (rustication) or expulsion (sending down) from the College. These and less serious breaches may entail fines or the limitation of the use of College facilities (including exclusion from residence in College rooms) at the discretion of the Deans, but with an appeal to the President. There is a right to appeal to an Intercollegiate Appeal Tribunal against any disciplinary decision of the College once the College’s own procedures have been completed. Beyond the Intercollegiate Appeal Tribunal, the last domain for appeal is the Office for the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education.

Charges

6. All members shall pay their termly College bills (battels) at the time notified by the Bursar, unless the Bursar has given written permission to the contrary. Junior members are encouraged to discuss with their Tutor, the Bursar, the Senior Dean or the President any difficulties they may have in meeting their College bills; but unless they have obtained written permission for the delay of payment, junior members may not come into residence for the new term until any College bill which has been outstanding in whole or in part for a complete term has been paid. Late payment of College bills will be liable to be treated as a disciplinary offence. Junior members are not normally presented to the University for degrees whilst any College bill is outstanding.

7. Damage to College property or to that of its members shall be charged to the member responsible. Residents in College (including College annexes) are responsible for any damage done in their rooms. General damages may be charged to all junior members resident in College if the person responsible cannot be identified. The Senior Dean consults with the Presidents of the JCR and MCR before imposing charges to general damages.

Domestic

8. Undergraduates who wish to be absent for the night during the week in full term should sign out at the Porter’s Lodge. This is partly to ensure that undergraduates can be contacted by the College in an emergency and partly so that, in case of fire, the duty
Porter knows how many persons are to be accounted for. It is a general duty upon all members to keep the College so informed.

9. Equally, undergraduates wishing to be absent for one or two nights on Friday, Saturday or Sunday nights during Term should, before they leave, sign the signing-out book in the Lodge for that purpose and should sign again in the same book when they return.

10. Junior members absenting themselves from College during Term on medical or other personal grounds are expected where possible to report their proposed absence to one of the following: Tutor, Lodge Manager, Academic Administrator, College Nurse, Deans. This does not dispense junior members from using the signing-out book for absences on Saturday or Sunday nights, but it is applicable in circumstances where those procedures are not practicable, especially in instances of illness.

11. Junior members living in Middleton Hall, Museum Road, Blackhall Road, St John’s Street or in other premises designated by the Deans and Bursar as extensions of the College for the purpose of the Regulations are subject to the same rules and discipline as those living in College.

Regulation of noise

12. Every member resident in College is responsible for ensuring that they do not disturb their neighbours and so shall keep any noise in their rooms at a level reasonable for the time of day or night.

13. There are certain hours during which the playing of musical instruments, or listening to radios or recorded music, in such a way as to be audible outside the room concerned, will generally be treated as an unreasonable disturbance of other users of the College. Throughout the year, these hours are:

   11.30 pm - 8.00 am and 9.00 am - 1.00 pm every day,
   5.00 pm to 7.00 pm on weekdays.

14. If a member causes persistent disturbance by playing musical instruments, radios, or other music equipment, they may be prevented from introducing them onto or keeping them on College premises.

15. At no time are radios, etc., to be played in any of the quadrangles or gardens of the College, nor are they to be played from within any room so as to be clearly audible in the quadrangles or gardens.
16. Various other rules attach to the use of the College premises, particularly to rooms in which members of the College reside:

i) No explosives, including fireworks, are allowed in College

ii) Aerials may not be placed on nor attached to College buildings

iii) Posters other than election posters for national, local, European Parliamentary or Oxford Union or Oxford SU elections may not be displayed on walls or windows of the College or its Museum Road, Blackhall Road or St. John’s Street houses, nor generally in such a way as to cause annoyance or offence to those using any College premises or being in the vicinity of any College premises.

iv) Wet washing should not be hung in rooms or outside windows to dry.

v) Improvised displays (e.g. flags) are not permitted to be hung outside College windows for safety reasons as well as issues relating to heritage and aesthetics including the risk of damaging the building fabric.

vi) The playing of ball-games, frisbee or similar games is not permitted in any of the College’s open spaces or gardens, except for the playing of croquet on the Croquet Lawn.

vii) Cooking equipment may not be kept or used in rooms.

viii) In accordance with Government Legislation, all buildings and enclosed spaces in St John’s College are non-smoking. Some designated smoking areas are provided in the College grounds.

17. Certain parts of the College, the President's Lodgings, Fellows' rooms, the Porters' rooms in the Lodges, the SCR, the Kitchens, the Buttery and (except at stated times) the Bursary, are out of bounds to junior members and may only be entered by them upon invitation from the President or the relevant officers.

18. Residents in College who wish to entertain parties of twelve or more persons in their rooms or elsewhere in College must obtain leave of one of the Junior Deans. The time fixed for the ending of such entertainment must be strictly adhered to, and disturbance of neighbours must be minimised both by prior consultation and by consideration for their convenience during the party concerned.

19. Use of College rooms for public events:

   i) Use of the College Hall requires the prior permission of the President on the advice of one of the Junior Deans, to whom applications for such permission should be made. Applications to use the JCR Functions Rooms, New Seminar Room or a lecture room should also be made to a Junior Dean. The person making the booking will be held responsible for the good behaviour of all present and will be expected to remain in the room throughout the period of its booked use.

   ii) Any College (or University) group or society wishing to book a College room for a meeting which will involve an outside speaker must give notice to a Junior Dean using the appropriate form available at the Lodge. Such notification must be given at least one week before the date of the meeting. It is the responsibility of the organiser of the meeting to provide a Junior Dean with full details of the purpose of the meeting, the name of the group or society, and the names of all outside speakers invited to the meeting. If a Junior Dean is not notified, the meeting will not be allowed.

20. Residents may arrange for guests to spend a limited number of nights in College; details about such arrangements are circulated separately. Members of the College are responsible for the conduct of their guests. In particular, they must ensure that guests cause no disturbance or inconvenience to other members of the College, and that guests are either escorted off the College premises or are in the company of a member of the College after the gates of the College are locked at night.

21. Except as provided in Rule 20, guests may not without the permission of a Dean remain in College after the Gate is closed. Junior members and their guests are not allowed to sleep overnight in any of the College public rooms, including the JCR and MCR rooms.

22. All junior members of the College are required to be members of the Junior Common Room and of the Amalgamated Sports Clubs. Graduates and Senior Status Students are also members of the Middle Common Room.
23. The College Bar will normally only be open during licensing hours. The supply and consumption of alcoholic drinks on College premises shall take place subject to restrictions determined by the Deans. The purpose of these restrictions, which will normally relate to the public rooms of the College, is to ensure that the standards required by the licensing laws are strictly adhered to. Contraventions of these restrictions will therefore be liable to be treated as serious offences.

Trashing

24. Many of those who go to meet their friends as they leave their University examinations participate in ‘Trashing’, creating additional risks, disturbance, mess, expense, and reputational damage to the University. Trashing is offensive and distressing to many students and to members of the public and impacts disproportionately on those colleges close to where trashing occurs. St John’s supports the University’s ‘What a Waste’ campaign, discouraging students from meeting their friends at the examination schools with trashing materials. Trashing cannot be condoned under any circumstances, but it is especially egregious when it occurs on a public thoroughfare, and the collegiate University has a collective responsibility to ameliorate this. Each year the University expends in excess of £25,000 on managing post-examination student behaviour, money that would be much better spent elsewhere. St John’s congratulates our students on the end of their exams, but we trust that we can count on you not to add to this anti-social problem; offenders may be subject to disciplinary procedures including a fine.
ST JOHN’S COLLEGE

DISCIPLINARY CODE

1. Introduction
A junior member who, whilst a member of College, brings the College into disrepute and/or indulges in conduct inimical to the orderly life of the College will be liable to disciplinary action by the College. Action may be brought against members in respect of such behaviour, inter alia, within other Colleges, within the precincts of the University, or elsewhere within the City. The University includes the student press, social networking sites, weblogs and online sites associated with the University.

Any junior member who has been convicted of a criminal offence of such seriousness that an immediate term of imprisonment might have been imposed (and whether or not such a sentence was in fact imposed) is required to inform the Senior Dean, who will instigate disciplinary procedures as set out in section 5 below.

It is an offence for a junior member to fail to take reasonable steps to prevent disruptive or offensive behaviour on the part of anyone they invite into College.

No student shall intentionally or recklessly engage in any act, omission, or course of conduct which is contrary to government, Public Health England or local public health rules, any instructions issued by public health officials, or any rules which College has issued based on official health guidelines

2. Disciplinary offences
A disciplinary offence is:

i) A contravention of any regulation within the College Regulations; or

ii) A contravention of any University regulation or code as found by the appropriate University authority; or

iii) Any other conduct which disrupts or attempts to disrupt the lawful activities of members of the college or its staff, constitutes dishonest dealings with another member of the college or its staff or is otherwise seriously detrimental to the interests of the college.
3. General principles in imposing penalties
In determining whether a contravention has occurred, the principle that the weight of the evidence should be commensurate to the seriousness of the contravention shall be applied. In imposing penalties under these regulations, regard shall be had to the principle of proportionality.

4. Penalties and charges which may be imposed by the Senior Dean Disciplinary powers exercised by the Senior Dean normally include fines up to £250, exclusion from parts of the College for short periods (no more than one term), disconnection from the IT network, confiscation, and community service (no more than 10 days). The Senior Dean may also impose charges for damage to property, sufficient to cover the costs of repair and/or replacement up to £1000.

In the case of minor offences (such as might be covered by the penalties outlined in section 4, above), the junior member will be informed in writing of the penalty and the reasons for its imposition. They should be given the opportunity to attend a meeting with the Deans before the penalty comes into force, if they wish. In circumstances where there is doubt as to fact, responsibility or identity, the junior member shall normally be summoned to appear before the Deans. A summons will also normally be held in cases of repeated offence or where the seriousness of the offence makes it appropriate. The Dean will keep a brief confidential record of the offence and penalty.

Appeals by junior members against penalties arising from minor offences should be received in writing by the President no later than 5 days following the receipt of the letter communicating the penalty. The President will convene a Disciplinary Committee (as outlined in 5 below) which will meet to consider the penalty within two weeks. The penalty will normally be suspended pending appeal.

5. Formal Disciplinary Procedure
Serious offences (such as might not be covered by the penalties outlined in (4.a) must be referred by the Senior Dean to a Disciplinary Committee. Penalties available to the Committee include: fines in excess of £250 and charges above £1000; community service of greater than 10 days; denial of access to College facilities (including bar, Library, Computer Room, IT facilities; Hall; accommodation), rustication (i.e. denial of access to College premises for a specified period, possibly requiring the fulfilment of specified conditions for return); sending down (i.e. termination of rights of access to the College’s premises, facilities and services); expulsion (i.e. permanent loss of membership of the College); combinations thereof.
The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of three members, drawn from a pool of ten members of the Governing Body, excluding the Senior Dean; none of the members selected for the Committee shall have been a tutor or supervisor of the junior member. The pool shall be appointed by the President at the start of the academic year; the membership of each Committee will exclude those who have previously served on a Committee or an Appeals Committee that year, and thereafter be determined by lot. When all members have served on one Committee during the course of an academic year, they will be asked to serve a second time, as determined by the principles outlined above. The President will appoint one member as Chair.

The Committee’s hearing shall take place as soon as practicable; normally within one week of the Senior Dean’s informing the President. The junior member shall be notified of the composition of the Committee, any penalty which will be proposed to the Committee by the Senior Dean and the proposed time and place of the Committee’s hearing (which will allow reasonable time for the junior member to prepare for it). In advance of the hearing the junior member should be given a clear statement of the grounds for his or her being referred to the Committee, and a copy of all documentation with which the Committee is provided. This will include a list of any witnesses. The junior member should be allowed to take advice in advance of the hearing and is entitled to be adequately represented at the hearing itself, being given the chance either to make a written submission, or, if they prefer, to appear in person or with a representative before the Committee. The junior member should normally in the latter case be offered the possibility of being accompanied by an officer or other member of their Common Room. They may also ask for witnesses to attend.

The duty of the Committee is to establish all relevant facts, based upon the evidence submitted and statements made by the Senior Dean, Junior Deans, the junior member, witnesses and the junior member’s representatives and then decide whether the case is proven. If it is so decided, the Committee will then determine, bearing in mind the interests of the College and the junior member, the proportionate, appropriate and practical penalty. The evidence may be written, but is not confined to this form. The Committee may ask the Senior Dean to propose a penalty. The hearing will begin with the Chair reading the statement of the grounds for the junior member being referred to the Committee. The Senior Dean, Junior Deans, junior member and witnesses may be asked to speak in an order and format to be determined by the Chair of the Committee. The junior member or their representative will be given an opportunity to: make an opening statement; cross-examine any witnesses; submit evidence (written or otherwise) and/or argument; make a closing statement after any closing statement by the Senior Dean. The Chair of the Committee will be responsible for making a written record of the hearing.
The Committee will ask the junior member, the Senior Dean and any witnesses to withdraw before deliberation. They may re-summon any of the above: the junior member will be given the opportunity to be present for any further summons. Having considered the matter, the Committee will agree its decision by vote; the Chair’s vote will be the casting vote in the event of a tied vote. The Committee may confirm, increase, decrease or set aside any penalty proposed by the Senior Dean. The decision will be promptly communicated in writing to the junior member and to the President.

For offences involving more than one junior member, the Committee may choose to hear each case separately or to hear all offenders’ cases together before the Committee. All offences will be decided on their individual facts.

When considering appeals against minor offences the Committee may choose to allow written evidence and written submissions only. Decisions will be communicated by the Chair in writing to the junior member(s) and copied to the Senior Dean.

6. Serious Cases: Appeals
If a junior member wishes to appeal against a decision of a Disciplinary Committee they may do so, in the first instance according to the arrangements set out in the College’s Appeals Procedure.

In a case involving a serious offence (which is not covered by 4), a junior member may appeal to the Conference of Colleges Appeal Tribunal, of which the College is a member. The Junior member may appeal to the Tribunal not more than five days after the Disciplinary Committee’s decision.

Under the Higher Education Act 2004, certain complaints which the junior member considers not to have been properly dealt with by either the College and/or the Appeal Tribunal of the Conference of Colleges can be pursued with the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education.

In cases where the junior member is subject to proceedings under both disciplinary and academic grounds, the President may convene a joint Disciplinary Committee and if required, a joint Appeal Panel. In such cases, the President shall determine which procedure should take precedence.

Very serious offences that may involve criminal proceedings will be reported to the police.
The President may suspend a junior member, pending the hearing of an appeal where it is judged on reasonable grounds that the continuing presence of that junior member would be disruptive to the College community. Such a suspension would be precautionary rather than punitive.

Where a decision is made against a student under the regulations referred to in section 5 above, the student shall immediately be informed of the right to appeal, and provided with a statement of the nature of the appeal process and the steps necessary to make the appeal.
POLICY ON UNDERGRADUATE SUSPENSION OF STATUS

RESPONSIBLE COMMITTEE: Education Policy Committee
RESPONSIBLE OFFICER: Senior Tutor
LINKED DOCUMENTS (College): Undergraduate Fitness to Study Procedure, Academic Disciplinary Procedure for Undergraduate Students, College Disciplinary Code.
LINKED DOCUMENTS (Other): University Fitness to Study Policy and associated Statute.
Annual Review date: First meeting of Trinity Term

Purpose

1. This document sets out the general principles and processes the College follows when making provision for undergraduate students who request permission to take a temporary break from their studies, or when an undergraduate student is required by the College to interrupt their studies

2. Definition of terms

Suspension of status
Suspension is sometimes colloquially referred to as ‘rustication’. For clarity, the College uses the term ‘suspension of status’, as used by the University. Suspension of status within the University ‘stops the clock’ for all elements of a student’s degree, including residence, fees and terms for which a particular status may be held. During this period a student will not be considered on-course, and will not hold enrolled status.

For the avoidance of doubt within the College the term ‘rustication’ is only used when imposed as the result of College disciplinary proceedings. It is not used to describe undergraduates who with the agreement of the College suspend their studies on medical, welfare or personal grounds.

Withdrawal
An undergraduate may withdraw from their studies at any time and by such withdrawal leaves the University, their College, and their course. Students who have withdrawn are not enrolled at the University and cannot expect to return to their course at a subsequent point.

In the absence of College permission, an undergraduate ceasing their studies or going out of residence may be deemed to have withdrawn.
3. Principles of undergraduate suspension of status

A suspension of status may arise in one of two ways. Firstly, when an undergraduate requests permission to suspend their status on medical or other personal/welfare grounds (for example, bereavement, parenthood\(^1\), need to care for others, etc.). Secondly, on rare occasions, the College may decide it is necessary to suspend an undergraduate’s status (i) if there are severe concerns about an undergraduate’s fitness to study\(^2\) or (ii) for disciplinary reasons (academic or non-academic). Where appropriate, suspension may therefore follow action taken under the Undergraduate Fitness to Study Procedure, the Academic Disciplinary Procedure for Undergraduate Students, or the College’s Disciplinary Code.

4. Right to suspend status

Undergraduates do not have an automatic right to suspend status, which can only be granted by College. College will consider sympathetically requests on medical or other personal/welfare grounds, and will make reasonable adjustments in cases covered by the Equality Act 2010. Suspension of status on medical grounds requires medical certification, typically from the College GP, in support of the request. In the event that the Senior Tutor doubts the adequacy of the evidence supplied, they may require additional evidence to be supplied and/or require the student to obtain the opinion of the College Doctors. This evidence is to be communicated directly to the Senior Tutor.

College will not grant suspension of status solely on the grounds that an undergraduate is, or feels, ill prepared for examinations, or that they have underperformed/ are underperforming on course. Applications on the grounds of a request for a break or gap year will not be considered, although exceptional opportunities, for example internships, or other academic opportunities supported by tutors, or representing the country in a sport, may be considered.

Sometimes the nature of a situation may be such that, regrettably, the course of study cannot be completed at all. The interruption may be too prolonged or too repeated to allow for the measure of continuity that is necessary successfully to participate in the relevant course, with the result that withdrawal is the only option available. The College will seek to be as supportive as possible throughout such a process.

5. Consideration of cases

A student who wishes to seek permission to suspend status should request a meeting with the Senior Tutor.

Cases of suspension will be considered on an individual basis, taking into account all relevant information (including medical) and are always treated in the round, with the particular undergraduate in mind. The College will do everything it can to ensure that the student understands the process of applying for, being required to take, and returning from, a period of suspension from their studies and that the student receives support throughout this process.

The College expects that a request to suspend status will have been preceded by a period of discussion and on-course support. A student whose situation is or may be covered by this Policy on Suspension of Status is encouraged in the first instance to consult the relevant sources of support available to them in College. These include their Subject Tutor, the Senior Tutor, the Fellow for Welfare, the Tutor for Women, the College Medical Practice, the College Nurse, the College Psychologist, and JCR Welfare Officers. Further information is available in the College’s Undergraduate Student Handbook and on the University’s website.

The College will do all it reasonably can to assist an undergraduate to remain on course, rather than to suspend their status. In some cases, suspension of status will be the best course of action, in others it may not.³

The College itself does not set out specific rules covering the length of time a student may take to complete their course but follows those set out in the University Examination Regulations⁴

6. Timeframe for decision making

³ University procedures allow for the possibility of re-structuring courses as a ‘reasonable adjustment’ where this is the best response to an ongoing disability condition. Applications for such re-structuring, or for other major adjustments to assessment on the grounds of disability, should be made through the College to the University’s Education Committee.

⁴ See University Regulation 4.11 Maximum time for Honours.
The College aims to deal with cases covered by this Policy as quickly as possible so that the delay does not aggravate any difficulties with academic progress.

Any decision made by the College regarding suspension of status, and the conditions attached to that suspension and return, will be confirmed in writing by the Senior Tutor within a reasonable time (no later than 14 days from the date of informal agreement, subject to receipt of necessary medical evidence).

Discussion regarding suspension of status will also include discussion of domestic and other arrangements, such as any charges made for College rooms vacated, means of communication during the period of suspension (e.g. confirming which email address will be checked), and the possibility of College accommodation being available on the student’s return to their studies.

7. Form of communication

Where the Policy requires communication to a student in writing, the normal method is by email to the recipient’s personal ox.ac.uk email address. An email will be regarded as having been delivered to the recipient at the time of sending.

The Academic Administrator is the primary contact for a suspending student in connection with any matter relating to the suspension. In the event of a period of suspension being granted, the student suspending will normally be encouraged to communicate with their subject tutor(s) to discuss academic aspects of the period of suspension and return to study.

8. Appeal

If an undergraduate is dissatisfied with the College’s decision, they should follow the appeals procedure as set out in the College’s Undergraduate Student Handbook.

9. Suspension of status on medical grounds

An undergraduate whose status is suspended on medical grounds will normally be expected to follow medical advice and appropriate treatment as agreed with a medical professional (typically the College Doctor) in order to address their health problems.
Students reading Medicine should be aware that they may also need to satisfy departmental requirements appropriate to the course.

After suspension on medical grounds, and before an undergraduate is permitted to resume study, the college must receive a medical assessment from the doctor, stating whether or not the undergraduate is medically fit to resume study. The doctor’s assessment will, as appropriate, take into account reports provided by other clinicians involved in the care of the undergraduate during the period of suspension. The college will be responsible for determining, in the light of the doctor’s assessment and if necessary in consultation with the College Medical Practice, whether the undergraduate is fit to study and whether any other conditions of return have also been met. In the event that the Senior Tutor doubts the adequacy of the evidence supplied, they may require additional evidence to be supplied and/or require the student to obtain the opinion of the College Doctors.

Students are advised that confirmation of fitness to return should be obtained no earlier than 14 weeks and no later than 4 weeks before the first day of the full term in which the student’s return is anticipated to ensure that paperwork can be submitted in good time, outstanding conditions addressed, and appropriate support or necessary reasonable adjustments put in place. Confirmation of an undergraduate’s medical fitness to return does not need to entail a full recovery; an undergraduate might continue to be in receipt of healthcare or welfare support on returning to studies, as agreed with the College Doctor, but be managing their medical condition sufficiently well for the College Doctor to be able to recommend to College that they are able to return to full-time study.

Undergraduates are encouraged to make full disclosure to the doctor, who will then only communicate to the College what has been agreed with the student, and what is relevant for return. The College is responsible for determining, in the light of the available evidence and the medical professional’s assessment, whether the student is fit to study and whether any other conditions of return have also been met (see footnote 2).

10. Returning to study

All undergraduates who are on course, including those who have returned from suspension of status, are expected to be in good academic standing, as defined by the college (for example, attending classes, tutorials, submitting work on time, sitting Collections, performing at a level commensurate with their ability). Students may be asked to meet with the Senior Tutor and/or subject Tutor(s) and/or Fellow for Welfare prior to return to discuss progress made and readiness for return.
Returning without being able to fulfil the academic requirements of the course and to maintain good academic standing within the College may be seriously detrimental to an undergraduate’s health, and can limit an undergraduate’s opportunities to complete their studies successfully. Where academic conditions are set for undergraduates returning from medical suspension (and where the undergraduate is not concurrently under an academic disciplinary process) this would be on pedagogical grounds and/or to support a student in their return in order to ensure that they are prepared for the proposed point of re-entry; they should not therefore be seen as a punitive measure, by either the Tutor(s) or the returning student.

If an undergraduate is on a disciplinary or academic monitoring process at the point of suspension they would normally return at the same point in that disciplinary or monitoring process, unless it was decided prior to, or at the point of, suspension that their medical condition provided sufficient mitigation for them to be removed from that process, or for that process to be adjusted.

Where suspension of status has been decided on academic disciplinary grounds the College will normally set academic conditions of return (which may include one or more Collections to be sat shortly before or at the point of return).

In relation to students with disabilities, the College will follow the collegiate University’s common framework, noting the requirement to make reasonable adjustments insofar as they do not compromise academic competence standards.⁵

11. Period of suspension

Any term of study that has been completed by the time of suspension cannot normally be repeated. Circumstances that have affected study in a given term should normally already have been raised with tutors and/or relevant college officers as and when they arise, and addressed during the term. There might be exceptions, such as when a condition is raised early on in term and, in consultation with tutors and the appropriate college officer, an undergraduate attempts to continue study without suspension, but this attempt is ultimately unsuccessful, or where a serious situation has not been recognized at an earlier stage. In such cases any period of ‘repeat study’ cannot be assumed, but might be considered\(^6\), provided supporting evidence is available.

⁵ See the University’s Common Framework for support disabled students

A single period of suspension of status will not normally exceed one year. In some cases, the College will consider an extension or further period of suspension, following a fresh consideration of the case. Periods of suspension in aggregate extending beyond one year will require consultation with further parties (e.g. the University’s Education Committee and the relevant Department or Faculty); if a period of suspension lasts for two years, a returning student would be ‘Overstanding for Honours’ without dispensation from the relevant University Regulation (see footnote 4). It would be unusual for any undergraduate to be suspended from studies for a total of more than two years across their course.

In all cases of suspension, consideration will need to be given to the assessment of any University work already submitted, changes in Examination Regulations, and whether the suspending student will be ‘Overstanding for Honours’. This should be discussed with the student prior to suspension.

12. Access to College facilities
   During a suspension of status, it is not expected that a student will have cause to come onto the College site frequently. Suspended students are not permitted to stay in College accommodation beyond an initial period (usually no more than seven days from the point at which suspension is agreed with the Senior Tutor) allowing for arrangements to be made to return home. Suspended students may not take any ongoing part in college organisations or activities, but they may still access the site as a guest, and should email the Senior Tutor for permission to visit. Students may also attend any meeting arranged with a tutor, and can access the College library, but cannot borrow books unless special arrangements are made with the librarian through their tutor. The welfare provision available to students during a period of suspension is detailed below.

13. Access to University facilities
   An undergraduate whose status is suspended will no longer be on course. Undergraduates whose status is suspended will normally have access to certain University facilities as set out by the University. This will include the provision of an active University card, which will \(^6\) University regulations and processes allow for flexibility where there is good cause. However, assessment structures start from the basis that all undergraduates will have the same number of terms, and time, to study and prepare for examinations and colleges need to ensure that suspension does not lead to unfair advantage in relation to other undergraduates.

in turn allow access to online facilities and resources, use of the University libraries, borrowing rights from faculty and sub-faculty libraries (unless a block has been put on the University card e.g. for non-payment of library fines), and an active University email address.

Students who are suspended due to non-payment of fees will have all services withdrawn.

During a period of suspension, undergraduates may not normally be included on routine mailing lists, and may need to remain in proactive contact with Tutors and administrators regarding matters such as option choices on return.

14. Welfare support

It is important to recognise that Colleges and the University are places of academic study and cannot play a significant role in the welfare support or treatment of an undergraduate while their status is suspended. An undergraduate whose status is suspended will inevitably face a certain amount of disruption to their support networks. As part of preparing to suspend, undergraduates should consider how to ensure that they will have sufficient support during the suspension of their status.

Undergraduates who plan to remain in the city of Oxford during their period of suspension should be aware that this can be a challenging option, and are asked to consider carefully how they will spend their time as an Oxford resident who is not currently on course.

Students may find it helpful to contact the Fellow for Welfare before returning to explore what support will be available to them to help re-engage with academic work and college life after their return.

Undergraduates whose status is suspended will normally have access to certain University welfare services as set out by the University\(^7\); however, this support is not a substitute for specialist support for the relevant medical condition.

The University’s Counselling Service may also provide students whose status is suspended with help on the same basis as students on course; that is, on a short-term basis. The Counselling Service will not be able to substitute for NHS (or overseas) support at home, but can assist in helping students to think about the services they will need, and can offer online appointments to students who have already left residence.

OUSU’s Student Advice Service can provide both advice and support to undergraduates considering and returning from suspension\(^8\).

The University’s Careers Service is also available to students whose status is suspended\(^9\).

15. Students with disabilities
For some undergraduates, medical factors that lead to suspension of status may suggest a condition that can be supported by the University’s Disability Advisory Service\(^10\). If an undergraduate suspects that support from the service might be helpful, they are strongly encouraged to make contact prior to their return so that appropriate assessment can be scheduled and support put in place. The process of agreeing and funding support can take some time and an undergraduate may put themselves at a disadvantage if appropriate support cannot be put in place by the time of their return. Students may also discuss this in the first instance with the College Disability Contact.

16. Fees
The University’s rules state that the term’s fees must normally be paid if an undergraduate is on course beyond Monday of 4th week of that term. In practice, this normally means that a suspension should have been discussed and agreed by Friday of 3rd week of the term of suspension if fees are not to be incurred and the term is to be re-taken. A ‘fee waiver’ may be discussed in certain cases, where a lack of engagement in teaching/learning during a term can be verified, and may be discussed with the Academic Administrator in the first instance.

17. Financial arrangements
While their status is suspended, an undergraduate will not be required to pay fees, nor will they normally be eligible for financial support from the College. If suspension of status is agreed, the college will inform the University’s administration, which will in turn inform any UK student funding body.

Undergraduates with suspended status are recommended to make contact with Student Finance England (SFE), or other relevant funding body, within a month of receiving the college’s formal confirmation of suspension. This should allow time for notification to have been processed. The College is only allowed to discuss an undergraduate’s case directly with SFE or any other agency where a student has set up permission for this to take place, but can be asked to provide any official letters required if a student is negotiating provision.

\(^10\) www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/disability/eligibility

In some circumstances of medical suspension, a student may be able to receive an additional 60 days’ worth of funding from SFE and, if they have interrupted their studies for Compelling Personal Reasons (CPR) and can demonstrate financial hardship, they may be eligible for a limited amount of maintenance funding during suspension. Requests are considered by SFE on a case-by-case basis, and in some circumstances the University’s fees and funding team may be able to advise. Each of the other UK funding agencies has different arrangements in place to support these circumstances, which students will need to check directly.

Undergraduates returning from suspension will need to re-contact SFE, or any other funding body, prior to their return to confirm their funding arrangements directly. Where an undergraduate is returning from suspension in a subsequent academic year, they are advised to reapply for their Student Finance as early as possible after the new application cycle opens (usually from January onwards) to allow sufficient time for their application to be assessed and their entitlement to be finalized, even if not returning until Hilary or Trinity term of the next academic year. Following a re-assessment, undergraduates will receive an updated Student Finance letter from their funding agency which confirms their revised entitlement.

As part of the process to release any funding from Student Finance, students will need to complete the on-line registration process via their student self-service page as soon as possible after they have resumed study.

Students are advised to contact their Local Council as soon as possible after suspension of status to inform them of their situation and clarify whether or not they will be liable for Council Tax.

12 If a student whose status is suspended finds themselves in hardship, they can apply for a discretionary discount under section 13A of the Local Government Finance Act. The Council policy for discretionary discounts should be found on local government websites. Students staying in Oxford may contact the Academic Office to request that a letter be sent to Oxford City Council asking the council to consider the student for remission from council tax if the student’s status is suspended on, for example, medical grounds.

Student Registry provide details to the Council of enrolled students and their term-time address in Oxford to facilitate the Council’s processing of student exemptions. A student who becomes ineligible for a student council Undergraduates who are withdrawing from exams only do not normally repeat the term on return from suspension, but return to sit exams only. These undergraduates will not be liable for tuition fees for that period, nor will they be entitled to access to tutorials, revision classes, etc. SFE will not provide maintenance funding for a return to sit exams only.

18. Overseas students

Students who have been studying at Oxford on a student visa may be unable to remain in the UK and need to return to their country of residence promptly if their status is suspended. The University has a duty to inform the UK Border Agency when a student’s status is suspended, and students are advised to check on the University’s webpages for overseas students for further information on their rights and responsibilities: http://www.ox.ac.uk/students/visa/during/changes. Students can also access individual advice via student.visacompliance@admin.co.uk.

tax exemption, as they no longer have enrolled status, will immediately become liable for payment and the Council will seek recovery of discounts, which may include interest. This liability will commence at the start of the period of suspension.
1. INTRODUCTION

This document sets out the procedure that the College follows when there are concerns about the fitness to study of one of its undergraduate students on account of medical, psychological or emotional problems.

The intention in specifying this procedure is to provide students with a document they can refer to that sets out clearly their full responsibilities and the expectations related to their commitment to study and live within the College community. Whilst the focus of this procedure is on the fitness of the student to study, its ambit is of necessity wider than this as a student’s lack of fitness to study may have a serious impact upon the welfare or ability to study of other members of the College community. If and when a problem arises, the steps taken will be limited to those necessary for protecting the best interests of the student and other members of the College community, and for ensuring a consistent and sensitive approach to difficult situations. Decisions made by the College will combine a proper regard for the welfare of an individual student with recognition of the demanding academic requirements of Oxford degree courses.

This Fitness to Study Policy should be read together with the College’s other Policy documents, particularly those regarding Academic Discipline, Intermission and the College’s Disciplinary Code.

1.1 The University Fitness to Study Panel

The University has established a common framework across departments, faculties and colleges for cases where questions arise as to whether a student is fit to study or to return to study after a period of leave for medical, psychological, or emotional problems. Most such cases are dealt with under college procedures but there is also a Fitness to Study Panel, to which serious and difficult fitness to study cases can be referred if all other normal procedures at college or University level have been exhausted or are inappropriate.

‘Fitness to Study’ means an undergraduate or graduate student’s fitness:

- to commence a distinct course of academic study, or
- to continue with his / her current course of academic study, or to return to his / her current or another course of academic study and his / her ability to meet:
the reasonable academic requirements of the course or programme, and the reasonable social and behavioural requirements of a student member (whether resident in college or not) without his or her physical, mental, emotional or psychological health or state having an unacceptably deleterious impact upon the health, safety and / or welfare of the student and / or other students and / or University or college staff.

A student may be referred to the Fitness to Study Panel by a college, a department or faculty, the Proctors, the Student Disciplinary Panel or the Student Appeal Panel.

The Panel has power to consider medical and any other appropriate evidence, to take expert advice (the student may be asked to attend a consultation with a medical or other expert), and to consider submissions made by or on behalf of the student concerned.

At the end of the process, the Panel will decide (in the case of referrals by University authorities) or recommend (in the case of referrals by colleges) whether or not the student is fit to study. The Panel can also make decisions and recommendations about matters such as continued access to University and college facilities and premises, with or without conditions.

1.2 Medical students Fitness to Practice
The University is required by the General Medical Council to ensure that students who graduate with degrees of BMBCh are fit to practice medicine. Further information is available from the University Medical School.

2. USE OF THE UNDERGRADUATE FITNESS TO STUDY PROCEDURE
As a general rule this procedure is intended for use only in cases in which the physical or mental health of a student, their behaviour, disruption caused by them, or risk presented by them is perceived by the College to be of a serious or potentially serious nature. Where possible the support services available to students should be used as the first port of call prior to taking any formal action.

2.1 Form of communication
Where this Fitness to Study Policy requires communication to a student in writing, the normal method is by email to the recipient’s personal ox.ac.uk email address (or where the recipient lacks such an address, to the email address which has been supplied by the recipient to the College for such purposes) as well as via the pigeonhole of the student. An email will be regarded as having been delivered to the recipient at the time of sending.

3. DEFINITION OF FITNESS TO STUDY

For the purpose of this procedure, “fitness to study” is as defined in the University’s Statute XIII, Part B. It means an undergraduate or graduate student’s fitness;

(i) to commence a distinct course of academic study; or
(ii) to continue with their current course of academic study; or
(iii) to return to a current or another course of academic study and their ability to meet;

(iv) the reasonable academic requirements of the course or programme; and
(v) the reasonable social and behavioural requirements of a student member (whether resident in college or not) without their physical, mental, emotional or psychological health or state having an unacceptably deleterious impact upon the health, safety and/or welfare of the student and/or University or college staff (not withstanding adjustments required by law).

4. CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH A STUDENT’S FITNESS TO STUDY MAY BE BROUGHT INTO QUESTION

A student’s fitness to study may be brought into question as a result of a wide range of circumstances. These include (but are not restricted to) the following:

(i) The student informs the College of their own concerns.
(ii) Serious concerns about the student emerge from a third party (for example, a Medical Professional, a Tutor, a member of the College staff, a member of a University Department, friend, etc.) which indicate that there is a need to address their fitness to study.
(iii) The student has told a member of the College that they have a problem and/or provided information which indicates that there is a need to address their fitness to study.
(iv) The student’s disposition is such that it indicates that there may be a need to address an underlying mental health problem, for example if they have demonstrated mood swings; shown signs of depression; or become withdrawn.
(v) Behaviour, which would otherwise be dealt with as a disciplinary matter, which it is considered may be the result of an underlying physical or mental health problem.
(vi) The student’s academic performance or behaviour is not acceptable and this is thought to be the result of an underlying physical or mental health problem.
All undergraduate students should be aware that there are separate Academic Discipline regulations which relate to situation (vi) when there are no underlying physical or mental health problems.

5. ACTION TO BE TAKEN IF CONCERNS ARE RAISED REGARDING A STUDENT’S FITNESS TO STUDY

5.1 SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS

(i) Early intervention in student health/behaviour and recommendations for support can prevent a crisis situation. Before the College’s Undergraduate Fitness to Study Procedure is initiated, students will usually be directed by Subject Tutors or other staff to any support services in the College and the University that may be able to help.

(ii) Students whose situations are or may be covered by this Fitness to Study Policy are encouraged in the first instance to consult the relevant sources of support available to them in College. These include their Subject Tutor, the Senior Tutor, the Welfare, Senior and Junior Deans, the Tutor for Women, the College Medical Practice, the College Nurse, the College Psychologist, the Chaplain, and MCR/JCR Welfare Officers. Further information is available in the College’s Student Handbook and on the University’s website.

(iii) The Undergraduate Fitness to Study Procedure detailed below has three stages:

- Stage 1: emerging or initial concerns are identified
- Stage 2: continuing or initial serious concerns about an individual student’s health, safety or mental wellbeing are raised
- Stage 3: persistent or significant concerns are raised about a student’s health, safety or mental wellbeing that pose a risk:

  (i) to the student’s academic progress, and/or
  (ii) of disruption to College life, and/or
  (iii) of an unacceptable adverse effect upon other student(s).

Depending upon the perceived severity of the situation and seriousness of any perceived risks, action may be initiated at any of the three stages.

5.2 Emergency Situations

(i) It is possible that a student may pose such an extreme risk that emergency assistance is needed outside these procedures. In a situation where it is believed that a student's behaviour or condition presents an immediate risk to the student or to others, the Emergency Services should be contacted by dialing 999. The College Porters’ Lodge (01865 277300) should also be informed.

(ii) The Lodge should, immediately after dealing with the Emergency Services, alert the Senior Dean that there is an emergency situation.

(iii) The Lodge should, as soon as possible, notify the Academic Administrator that there is an emergency situation. The Academic Administrator will relay details to the Senior Tutor.

(iv) The people witnessing the student's behaviour should be asked not to leave the scene until they have briefed the Emergency Services, bearing in mind the primary necessity to ensure their own safety.

(v) The Porters’ Lodge will keep as full a record as possible of the action taken by the Emergency Services and pass this on to the Academic Administrator after the emergency situation has concluded. The Senior Dean or the Senior Tutor (as appropriate) will ensure that contact is made at the appropriate level of detail with the student and the student's Tutor, and that appropriate arrangements are made with regard to follow up.

(vi) Depending on the nature of the crisis a decision may be taken to place an immediate, interim suspension on a student pending further review of the student’s case. This decision will be taken by the President, in consultation with the Senior Dean and the Senior Tutor.

A temporary suspension may be imposed if the student is considered to be at risk of harm to themselves or to others and/or in situations where the student has support needs which are considered to fall outside the scope of the support and other services which can reasonably be expected to be provided by the College. In reaching a decision about a temporary suspension, the timing of any crisis will be critical, bearing in mind that reduced levels of support may be available outside of term time and during weekends.

(vii) Students who have been temporarily suspended as described in 5.2(vi) will normally be expected to proceed directly to Stage 2 or 3 of the Fitness to Study Procedure, at the recommendation of and as a result of discussions between the Senior Dean and the Senior Tutor, and taking into account the views of other members of the College and the College welfare team as appropriate.
5.3 Informal Action by the College: Stage 1

(i) If early intervention in terms of support and guidance as outlined above is unsuccessful, then normally the Subject Tutor or the Senior Tutor will attempt to resolve the matter by informal discussions with the student. If the fitness to study issue is related to academic or behavioural deficiency as in 2(iv), 2(v), the student should be made aware of the precise nature of the deficiency and/or circumstances that has caused concerns to be raised.

(ii) Students in this situation should be given the opportunity to explain their own views on the matter, and be encouraged to think about using one or more of the support services offered by the University.

(iii) It is hoped that in most cases issues can be resolved at this stage. It may be necessary to obtain independent corroboration as to whether support offered is being taken up. The responsibility for providing this will lie with the student.

(iv) Following discussions with the student, a review period may be determined by agreement between the Subject Tutor or Senior Tutor. At the end of this period a meeting should be held to discuss any steps taken by the student to address the concerns. If the concerns have been addressed satisfactorily, this will be noted and no further action will be taken. If, however, the concerns have not been addressed satisfactorily, either a further review period will be agreed, or the case will move to the next stage of the Procedure.

(v) A note of informal discussions, advice and any undertakings made by the College or the student should be documented and retained on the student’s personal file. Copies of documents will be made available to the student. A letter setting out what has been agreed should be given to the student.

(vi) If students are unable or unwilling to cooperate with this process or to modify their behaviour, they should be informed that more formal action under Stage 2 of this Procedure may be considered appropriate.

5.4 Case Review Group: Stage 2

(i) If the Responsible College Officer (who will normally be the Senior Tutor) believes that the action taken under Stage 1 has not been successful, or that the case is too serious to be dealt with informally, they can invoke Stage 2 of the Procedure.
A Case Review Group will be convened by the Senior Tutor which should meet with the student as soon as practicable. This Group will include the student’s Subject Tutor and the Senior Tutor. It may also include any of the following thought to be appropriate: The Academic Administrator, the Senior Dean, College Nurse or another member of the College Welfare support team. The College may ask one or more expert advisors to join the Case Review Group.

At the meeting the student may be accompanied by a friend or other advisor. A support worker, if required, may also accompany disabled students. The student and the Senior Tutor should inform each other of those attending the meeting at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

The Academic Administrator should be the point of contact with the student and should ensure that the Responsible College Officer is kept informed of all communications. The Senior Tutor should be the main point of contact with all other agencies and individuals, and should keep records of the whole process.

The Senior Tutor should appoint a deputy if unavailable to act at any stage.

Before the meeting, a medical assessment may be sought from the College Medical Practice in order to assist the College in addressing the student’s difficulties in the most effective manner possible and to make an accurate assessment of risk.

The College will not approach the College Medical Practice for information unless it has the student’s written consent to do so.

The medical assessment may be used to determine the following matters:

a. the nature and extent of any medical condition from which the student may be suffering;

b. the student’s prognosis;

c. the extent to which it may affect his/her fitness to study and manage the demands of student life;

d. any impact it may have or risk it may pose to others;

e. whether any additional steps should be taken by the College, in light of the medical condition, to enable the student to study more effectively;

f. whether the student will be receiving any ongoing medical treatment or support.
The student will be asked to authorise full disclosure to the College of the results of any medical examination. The College recognises that any such information disclosed will constitute "sensitive data" for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 and will be handled, processed and stored accordingly. Should the student refuse to undertake a medical examination, or disclose results, the College may continue this procedure based on any information already in its possession.

The College will respect medical and other evidence provided by the student, but it is for the College to determine the weight to be given to any evidence presented. If, for example, a medical certificate states that a student is fit to study, it is nevertheless for the College to determine the weight to be given to the evidence taking into account amongst other considerations the overall evidence in the case, including that provided by the College Medical Practice.

The student will be given at least 7 days' notice of the convening of the Case Review Group meeting and will be informed of the purpose of the meeting. This period may be shortened in emergency on the advice of the Senior Tutor. The student will also be provided with any documents that will be considered by the Group, and asked to provide any documentation for the Group to consider at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting will be to ensure that:
   a. the student is made fully aware of the nature of the concerns that have been raised;
   b. the student's views are heard and taken into account;
   c. the best way to proceed is agreed upon;
   d. the student is fully aware of the possible outcomes if difficulties remain.

The Case Review Group may decide:
   a. that no further action is required; or
   b. that an action plan should be agreed in order to monitor the student's progress for a specified period of time. In this case the action plan will be agreed with the student and appropriate College Officers as recommended by the Case Review Group. The plan will outline any steps that the student will need to take, and/or any support to be provided to the student. Regular review meetings with the student will need to be arranged with a nominated member of College staff to ensure that the action plan is being appropriately followed and/or that reasonable support to enable the student to study effectively is being provided. The student will be informed that the consequences of any breaches of the action plan will normally involve fitness to study being considered at Stage 3 of this Procedure; or
c. To recommend to the Senior Tutor that special academic arrangements or support are put in place. Such recommendations should be agreed between the student and the College. The student will be informed that unless these arrangements remedy the concerns to the College's satisfaction, the case may be considered at Stage 3 of this Procedure; or
d. With the consent of the student, to recommend to the Senior Tutor that the student’s studies be suspended for a period of time, subject to application to the relevant University authority as appropriate; or
e. To refer the case to the President to be considered under Stage 3 of this procedure. This will be appropriate only in the most serious of cases, where, for example, evidence of a serious risk to either the health and safety of the student or others has been identified, and it is thought that suspension, exclusion or expulsion of the student may be the appropriate course of action, or where a particular course of action has been recommended but the student does not agree.

(xii) The decision of the Case Review Group, together with a concise record of the meeting, should be sent to the student within 7 days from the date of the meeting, and a copy kept on the student's personal file. A copy of this documentation may be sent to the student's department where relevant.

5.5 Fitness to Study Panel Stage 3
(i) This stage of the Procedure will be implemented in the following circumstances:

a. As a result of a referral from a Stage 2 Case Review Group (see 5.4(e)); or
b. where in the opinion of the Senior Tutor, sufficiently serious concerns are raised to warrant consideration of the student's suspension, exclusion or expulsion (e.g. there is a potentially severe threat to the health, safety of the student or of others, or to the normal working of the institution); or
c. Where action recommended by the Case Review Group in 5.4(e) has not been successful.

(ii) As a first step in this stage, the Senior Tutor, in consultation with the President and Senior Dean, will consider whether a temporary suspension or exclusion of the student is appropriate, including exclusion from College accommodation or from the College premises, pending the decision of a Fitness to Study Panel.
(iii) The Senior Tutor will then ask the President to convene a Fitness to Study Panel which will be chaired by a senior member of the College’s Governing Body with no previous involvement in the case and normally have at least three members, who may be drawn from the Governing Body and may additionally include professional advisors. The members of the Fitness to Study Panel should not have had prior involvement with the student.

(iv) The Chair will fix a date for a formal meeting of the Fitness to Study Panel to hear the case, and will invite the student (who may be accompanied by a friend or advisor) to attend to discuss the concerns and all relevant issues. If requested by the Chair, a member of the College administrative staff will act as Secretary to the Panel.

(v) Wherever possible, the student will be given at least 7 days’ notice of the meeting of the Fitness to Study Panel. The student will be informed of the purpose of the hearing. The student will also be provided with any documents to be considered at the meeting and asked to provide any documentation they wish the Panel to consider in good time for the meeting.

(vi) The student may be accompanied at the meeting by a friend or other adviser. Disabled students may also be accompanied by a support worker where required. The student and the Panel Chair should inform each other of those attending the meeting at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

(vii) The purpose of the meeting will be to consider the evidence available, including the student’s perception of their fitness to study and of the concerns which have been raised in accordance with 3.0 and 4.4(i) above, and to reach an appropriate decision, action plan or other outcome.

(viii) The Fitness to Study Panel will order its proceedings at its discretion. It may call witnesses and may also institute enquiries to assist its deliberations which may include requesting further medical assessments of the student's fitness to study. It will also consider any previous fitness to study assessments.

(ix) The panel may decide to seek a medical assessment from the College Medical Practice in advance of the panel’s meeting, as described under section 5.4 (vi).

(x) The Chair of the Fitness to Study Panel will ensure that all parties have access to all documents which it considers. The course of action to be recommended shall be confirmed to the President by the Chair of the Fitness to Study Panel after obtaining a collective decision from members of the Panel.

(xi) Subject to the agreement of the President, the Chair of the Fitness to Study Panel will notify the student in writing of the Panel’s decision, with reasons, within 14 days of the meeting of the Panel. The Chair of the Panel will liaise with the Responsible College Officer to ensure that where possible, appropriate pastoral support is made available to the student at the time the decision is communicated, preferably from a member of the College Welfare Team.

(xii) The panel’s decision may include one or more of the following:

   a. formally to monitor the student’s progress for a specified period of time.
      In this case an action plan will be agreed with the student and appropriate College Officers, as recommended by the Panel. The plan will outline any steps that the student will need to take and/or any support to be provided to the student for addressing the concerns identified. Regular review meetings with the student will need to be arranged with a nominated member of staff to ensure that the action plan is being appropriately followed and/or that reasonable support to enable the student to study effectively is being provided. The student will also need to be informed of the consequences of any breaches of the action plan.

   b. A suspension of status is agreed with the student.

   c. To recommend that the College exercises its authority to suspend or exclude the student. This course of action may be taken when it is not possible to reach agreement with the student about the terms of a suspension of status under 5.5 (xii)b above.

   d. To recommend that the College refers the case to the University Fitness to Study Panel

   e. Any other action considered to be appropriate and proportionate.

Any decision regarding suspension of status or exclusion should be communicated by the Senior Tutor to the University.

(xiii) In cases where a suspension of status is recommended, the College’s Policy on Intermission will be followed.

   Any appeal shall be dealt with in accordance with the College Appeal Procedure.
ST JOHN’S COLLEGE

APPEALS PROCEDURE

1. INTRODUCTION
This document sets out the normal procedure that the College follows when there is an appeal by a student against a decision of a College Officer.

The intention in specifying this procedure is to provide appellants with a document they can refer to that sets out clearly the normal process that College follows when dealing with appeals in order to ensure a consistent and sensitive approach to difficult situations. The specific process set out in any individual College Policy should follow the general principles set out here. However, in the event of apparent conflict between the provisions of this document and those of any other College Policy, the provisions of this document shall prevail.

While this document is intended to set out the framework for appeals regardless of their origin, it remains possible that a situation may arise which is outside the scope of normal expectation and where the President and Governing Body must agree an ad-hoc process; nevertheless, the normal expectation is that the underlying principles set out in this document should still be followed.

1.1 Form of Communication
Where a College Policy requires communication with an appellant in writing, the normal method is by email to the appellant’s personal email address. An email will be regarded as having been delivered to the recipient at the time of sending.

In the event of dispute over receipt of communication from the appellant to the College, the College reserves the right to require production of reasonable evidence of such communication which may include evidence of recorded delivery posting or sending by email.

1.2 Underlying Principles
Decision making by College Officers will normally have followed the sequence of informal process followed by formal process. In the case of decisions affecting an individual student or member of staff, the person concerned will normally have been consulted at both the informal and formal stage and will have been able to be accompanied by a friend or adviser to any meeting with College Officers. Normally every attempt to resolve issues will be made at the informal stage before a formal stage is invoked by the College Officer according to the appropriate College policy which covers the specific issue. If a student is then unhappy with the decision of the College Officer they should be able to appeal, giving written reasons, within a time specified in the appropriate College policy. On receipt of an appeal, an Appeal Panel should be convened and should come to a decision as quickly as practically possible and inform the appellant without delay of their decision.

If the appellant is unhappy with the decision of an Appeal Panel, then depending on the issue they may be able to request that the College decision is considered by the Appeals Panel of the Conference of Colleges or they may decide to refer the College decision to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (for which there is a time limit). The OIA will normally expect a student to exhaust their remedies through the College and/or University’s internal appeals processes before it will consider a referral.

2. APPEAL PROCESS

2.1 Requesting an Appeal
If a person is unhappy with the decision of a College Officer they must, within a time specified within the appropriate College Policy, write to the College Officer (or President, as specified in the appropriate Policy) to request an appeal, setting out the grounds for their appeal.

2.2 Appeal Panel Process
(i) All Appeal Panels are convened by the President and normally will be chaired by the Vice-President or a senior member of the College’s Governing Body with no previous involvement in the case. They will normally have at least three members, who should be drawn from the Governing Body and may in addition include professional advisers.

(ii) The Chair will fix a date for a formal meeting of the Appeal Panel to hear the case, and will invite the appellant (who may be accompanied by a friend or adviser) to attend to discuss the concerns and all relevant issues. If requested by the Chair, a member of the College administrative staff will act as Secretary to the Panel.

(iii) Wherever possible, the appellant will be given at least 7 days’ notice of the meeting of the Appeal Panel. The appellant will be informed of the purpose of the hearing. The appellant will also be provided with a copy of any documents to be considered at the meeting and asked to provide any documentation they wish the Panel to consider in good time for the meeting.
(iv) The appellant may be accompanied at the meeting by a friend or other adviser. The adviser’s role is to support the appellant. They may not question witnesses, call witnesses or address the panel.

Disabled appellants may also be accompanied by a support worker where required. The appellant and the Panel Chair should inform each other of those attending the meeting at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

(v) The purpose of the meeting will be to consider the evidence available, including the appellant’s concerns, and to reach an appropriate decision, action plan or other outcome according to the relevant College Policy.

(vi) An Appeal Panel will order its proceedings at its discretion. It may call witnesses and may also institute enquiries to assist its deliberations.

(vii) The Chair of the Appeal Panel will ensure that all parties have access to all documents. The decision the Panel arrives at shall be confirmed by the Chair of the Appeal Panel after obtaining a collective decision from members of the Panel.

(viii) The appellant should be notified in writing of the decision, with reasons, within the time set out in the appropriate College Policy.
