There are approximately 600 students in St John's. About two thirds are undergraduates and one third are graduates. This section provides information for current students on the practicalities of life in College. Undergraduates are encouraged to approach their Tutors with matters affecting their work. Graduate students have a College Advisor whom they can approach with any problems.

St John's students excel in a wide range of subjects and take part in many activities in College and the wider

The screenshot shows the 'Oxford Transition Support' page on the University of Oxford website. The page features a dark blue header with navigation links for 'ADMISSIONS', 'RESEARCH', 'NEWS & EVENTS', and 'ABOUT'. Below the header is a large image of students sitting together. The main content area includes the title 'Oxford Transition Support' and the subtitle 'Helping you make the most of Oxford'. A paragraph explains that starting at Oxford is exciting but can be anxiety-inducing, and that the university is committed to supporting new students. A large graphic of three overlapping circles in blue, green, and yellow is positioned above the text 'Oxford Transition Support' and 'HELPING YOU MAKE THE MOST OF OXFORD'. Below this, a section titled 'Supporting your move to Oxford' provides more information. On the right side, there are sections for 'SYSTEMS & SERVICES' with a link to 'ACCESS STUDENT SELF SERVICE', 'LATEST STUDENT NEWS' with social media icons, and 'CAN'T FIND WHAT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR?' with a link to 'ASK A QUESTION'.
